Accepted Fact Early Election Now Ruled Out

By CHESTER BLOOM
Edmonton Bulletin Ottawa Bureau
OTTAWA, Feb. 14.—It can be taken as an accepted fact, The Edmonton Bulletin learned this morning, that the government has decided against an early general election.

The "call" for the election will be issued before April 17, as Prime Minister W. L. Mackenzie King announced some time ago. But the actual election day will likely be fixed at some period in the early summer, probably about the first week in June.

According to this information, the decision to hold the general election at a later date than has been forecast by so many prognosticators, has nothing to do with the progress or possible end of the war.

TIME BEST CURE

It is predicted purely upon the thesis that time is the best cure for refutation of political misrepresentation, to put it poetically, "truth crushed to earth will rise again." The government is convinced that the alleged misrepresentations concerning conscription and the conduct of draftees sent overseas uttered in the Grey North by-election campaign will prove a boomerang within the next month or so.

The government position is that it will be amply demonstrated in the present fighting that the Canadian armies are receiving ample

Soldier's Sentence Cut to Five Years

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—(AP)—The court-martial sentence of the 27-year-old private who refused to drill at a California army camp has been reduced progressively from death to five years imprisonment, senators learned today.

The modification was officially declared to have been made "to equalize the sentence in accord with war department policy."

Chairman Elbert D. Thomas (Democrat-Utah) of the senate military committee was informed of developments in a letter from Maj. Gen. Myron C. Cramer, Judge Advocate General.

The original death sentence, handed down against Pte. Henry Weber at Camp Roberts, Calif., Feb. 5, previously had been revoked by the trial court itself and the soldier sentenced to life at hard labor.

Collect Weapons

STOCKHOLM, Feb. 14.—(AP)—German civilians have been ordered to surrender all types of weapons to authorities before Feb. 29 by a decree which indicated not only the need for arms at the front but also governmental apprehension over the possibility of a revolt on the home front, Swedish correspondents said yesterday.

It Says Here

by Bob Hope

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—The ice hockey, or "refrigerated mayhem" season is on here, and what a sport that is. It's pretty much like golf, except that in golf you use the clubs on the ball and not on your opponent. I went out to one of the games, told a few jokes and had the players in stitches. Then they showed me a few plays and had my head the same way.

When it was over a kid came up and said, "Mr. Hope, here's your toupee." I explained that I don't wear a toupee, then had to chase him three blocks to get the top of my head back.

We were skating down the ice in formation when the captain yelled, "Spread out." I guess I did. The next thing I knew I was sitting in a lady's lap in the first row and a fellow in the balcony was hitting me for rubbing noses with his girl.

The referee called that a foul and put me in the penalty box, and they really fixed me up. I had to sit there and listen to a record of Jack Benny getting laughs.

All that ice really keeps the place cold. It was the first time I ever saw hot dogs served wearing sport sweaters.

I used to play a game pretty much like hockey in the streets of Cleveland, only we used a battered-up tin can for a puck and tree branches for sticks. We called it shinney. It was named after the bones that were left lying around when the game was over.

Probe Refuses Request Brief Be Withdrawn

TORONTO, Feb. 14.—(CP)—Mr. Justice Errol M. McDougall of Montreal, chairman of the Royal Commission on Taxation, yesterday denied a request of co-operative counsel that a brief submitted to the commission by the Investment Dealers' Association of Canada be withdrawn on the ground a part of it was a slur against co-operative societies generally.

The chairman gave his ruling late in yesterday's sitting after a sharp exchange between A. G. A. Spence, president of the Investment Dealers' Association, who presented the brief, and co-operative counsel W. B. Francis.

Mr. Francis, after failing to get answers as to the source of statistical data contained in the brief, asked Mr. Spence if he would withdraw it. When the investment association president declined, he appealed directly to the chairman.

Mr. Justice McDougall said he would have to accept the brief, but observed Mr. Spence should have come prepared to answer questions of counsel. Another

Active Patrolling On Italian Fronts

ROME, Feb. 14.—(AP)—Allied patrols maintained contact with the enemy on both the Fifth and Eighth army fronts, headquarters said today.

Patrols clashed with German units at several points in the west coastal sector, inflicting enemy casualties. German artillery heavily shelled forward positions.

Patrols were active on the Eighth Army front south of Lake Comacchio and a heavy artillery exchange was reported to the southwest.

Strong forces of escorted heavy bombers hit communication targets in Yugoslavia and Austria and harbor installations in northern Italy.

Medium bomber and fighters of the tactical air force struck at rail targets on the Brenner line with "good results" and light bombers attacked rail lines through Po Valley.

Grey North Vote Said "Disgrace"

WINNIPEG, Feb. 14.—(CP)—The federal by-election in Grey North in Ontario "was one of the most disgraceful episodes in the whole political history of Canada," said Lewis St. George Stubbs (OPP, Winnipeg), in the Manitoba legislature yesterday.

During the debate on the Throne Speech, the Independent member said the "Tory ramp made a concerted effort to deride and belittle Canada's war effort."

"Canada's good name was 'dragged in the dirt and smeared with lying stories about our Canadian soldiers,'" he said.

Mr. Stubbs criticized the Manitoba government for not increasing old age pensions. "A province that can make a profit of practically $1,000,000 on the sale and consumption of liquor in one year should hang its head in shame for the disgraceful way in which it takes care of its old people."

Hunt Goes On

Missing Troops are Captured In Remote Bushland Hideouts

By The Canadian Press

From hideouts tucked away in remote sections of Canada's snow-clad bushland soldiers absent without leave from the Canadian Army are being brought into custody and returned to their units while all across the country, in cities and towns, and through country areas civil and military police press the hunt for other army deserters.

Latest to be caught in the police net were 12 soldiers arrested in a shanty hideaway 12 miles from Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., and four others captured at Mount McKay, 20 miles southwest of Fort William.

Reports of these arrests, made early yesterday morning at Sault Ste. Marie and on Sunday and Monday at Mount McKay, were the first indication soldiers absent without leave have actually banded together in some instances and taken to the woods.

CROSS INTO STATES

Others, it has become known, have gone across the international boundary to the United States, as was the case with a 24-year-old private held at Buffalo, N.Y., yesterday and identified by police as Michael Akupchuk of Thorold, Ont., absent from the Canadian Army since Dec. 3.

Latest official figures show that since it was announced Jan. 20 that 6,300 men of the Canadian home defence army were overdue from embarkation leave,

Japan Won't 'Reject Peace' Tokyo States

LONDON, Feb. 14.—(CP)—A Tokyo radio commentator told the world today that it is Japan's policy "not to reject any hand which offers peace."

The commentator made his assertion during a discussion of the decisions announced by the "Big Three" at the Yalta conference.

"The American plan of world domination is clearly recognizable," the broadcaster said. "The only way to re-establish peace in the world is by a just policy as outlined by foreign minister Shigemitsu."

Score Break-Through Along 65-Mile Front In Drive on Dresden

LONDON, Feb. 14.—(CP)—Schnellfemuehl, long encircled German bastion in Pomerania, has been captured, Marshal Stalin announced tonight.

By ROBERT MUSEL
Exclusive to The Edmonton Bulletin

LONDON, Feb. 14.—(BUP)—Marshal Stalin announced tonight that the Red Army had scored a new break-through on a 65-mile front aimed squarely at the Saxony capital of Dresden, which was quaking day and night under Anglo-American aerial assault.

Marshal Ivan S. Konev's First Ukrainian Army overran six key communications centres and anchors of the Silesian defences in a westward sweep on an arc stretching from points 100 miles southeast of Berlin to 31 miles south-west of Breslau.

The new drive carried along Soviet forces to the Ruhr, beyond which the Nazis said the Soviet vanguard had smashed to positions on the Queis river 70 miles from Dresden.

Dresden itself was hit by nearly 4,000 RAF, Canadian and American bombers last night and today in the first big joint operation supporting the Red Army offensive.

Stalin, in a special order of the day, announced that Konev's

Record Aerial Fleets Support Soviet Advance

Exclusive to The Edmonton Bulletin
LONDON, Feb. 14.—(BUP)—Big fleets of American bombers striking in the wake of a record force of 1,400 RAF and Canadian night raiders, today smashed at Dresden, Chemnitz and Magdeburg on a broad arc south and southwest of Berlin.

Heavy Allied bombers in Italy joined in the daylight offensive. They hit oil targets in the Vienna area for the second straight day, and rail objectives between Vienna and the Yugoslav frontier.

The crushing weight of Allied heavy bomber attacks was turned to the support of the Red Army for the second time within less than 18 hours when one fighter-escorted formation of 1,350 Fortresses and Liberators over Germany today hit Dresden, the Saxony capital 70 miles ahead of the advancing Soviets.

Transport and industrial targets were bombed at Dresden, Chemnitz, 38 miles southwest of Dresden, and Magdeburg, 70 miles southeast of Berlin. Another force attacked a road bridge across the Rhine at

Capitalism "Great Human Incentive"

WINNIPEG, Feb. 14.—(CP)—Chief Justice Wendell B. Forde of Vancouver told the Maritime Provinces Association of Winnipeg last night that capitalism should not be destroyed as it was one of the greatest human incentives.

"Capitalism must not be monopolistic but based on humanity so controlled as to ensure a reasonable livelihood for every citizen. Big business must not be allowed to curtail production and to maintain prices only in order to ensure that such business shall survive," he said.

"Heads of business will be forced by circumstances to adapt themselves to new conditions in the post-war era," he said. "Modern inventions will not be used to increase the profits of the monopolist but to provide abundance for and to give cheaper prices to the masses."

BERLIN MAYOR REPORTED SHOT FOR COWARDICE

Russians Score Break Through Toward Dresden

army had captured Freystadt, Neustadt, Jauer, Neusalz, Streitz, Spottau and Goldberg.

Freystadt is 96 miles southeast of Berlin, a few miles southwest of Neusalz, big fortress city on the west bank of the Oder and on the Breslau-Berlin trunk railway. Neustadt is eight miles south of Neusalz.

AT RIVER CONFLUENCE
Spottau is at the confluence of the Bober and Spotte rivers, 100 miles southeast of Berlin.

Forty-odd miles west and southwest of Breslau, the closely clustered towns of Streitzau, Jauer and Goldberg fell to the Soviet forces edging down within a little more than 25 miles of the Czechoslovak border.

For the first time in the war the powerful land offensive of the Russian armies was directly supported by co-ordinated air blows from both the RAF and American strategic bombardment fleets.

The attack was opened by night when Air Marshal Sir Charles Harris sent out some 1,400 Lancaster bombers, nearly 800 of them concentrating on Dresden where they lighted vast fires visible to the advancing Red Army less than 70 miles distant at the Queis river.

The American command took up the assault by day, sending 1,350 Fortresses and Liberators over Germany. One large U.S. formation dropped a new bomb load on Dresden.

While others hit Chemnitz, 38 miles to the southwest and Magdeburg, 80 miles southwest of Berlin.

It was the first time in the war that elements of all three of the major Allies had been co-ordinated in a blow at Germany. Whether the British-American air support for the Red Army was a fruit of the Yalta conference was not known.

TOWERING FIRES

Returning RAF crews said they set fires in Dresden, easily visible 200 miles away. The big configurations set beacons for the Red Army forces slashing at the Queis river line, less than 70 miles to the east.

Today Allied air forces were over Germany again in great strength. The Nazi radio echoed with warnings of raiders over Dresden and Zwickau, 60 miles to the southwest.

The Dresden assault struck the network of rail and highway arteries and depots upon which the Wehrmacht is dependent to supply its front line forces now rapidly falling back upon the Saxony capital.

The RAF bomber command sent out a record-breaking total of 3,400 heavy bombers over Germany with the bulk of them concentrated in support of the Red Army.

PRESS AGAINST QUEIS

Marshal Ivan S. Konev's forces were pressing against the Queis river before Dresden, on a line less than 70 miles from their goal.

On the Berlin front, first White Russian Army forces have established a "major" bridgehead across the Oder at Reitivitz, 35 miles east of the capital and five miles southwest of Kuestrin, Nazi broadcast said.

The Germans also said street fighting was raging in Lebus, on the west bank of the Oder 33 miles east of Berlin and five miles north of Frankfurt. These forces presumably had cut the Kuestrin-Frankfurt railway at Lebus and were within a half mile of the west bank railway between the two cities.

Northeast of Berlin, Russian forces advanced to within five miles of the Danzig-Stettin-Berlin railway. The Second and Third Ukrainian armies, meantime, re-grouped in Hungary under 73 generals for resumption of offensives aimed at Vienna, Bratislava and Bohemia after completing the liberation of occupied Budapest.

Budapest, ruined capital of Hungary, finally fell yesterday to the two armies following a 56-day siege, in which 40,000 enemy troops were killed and 10,000 captured. The Nazi commander, Col. Gen. Pfeiffer-Wildenburg, and his staff were seized in their headquarters in an underground sewer.

An All-Chinese Canadian Army Platoon Formed

MAPLE CREEK, Sask., Feb. 14.—(CP)—An all-Chinese Canadian Army platoon of 48 members has just completed basic training here and the new group, the soldiers hope, is the Pacific theatre of war—the closer to occupied China the better.

Particularly eager to have another shot at the Japanese is L-Cpl. Louis Victor, 28, who was in China from 1937 to 1938 and led a guerrilla band which harassed the invaders with antiquated weapons. With Canadian army training behind him, he feels he will be able to do a more effective job next time.

Average age of the platoon is about 21 years, and all are general service men, drawn from various parts of Canada.

Big Three Briefs

MOSCOW, Feb. 14.—(AP)—The Crimea conference has charted the future course of Hungary, the government newspaper Izvestia said today. Citing the planned assistance of former Axis satellites in a democratic solution of political problems, the newspaper said "the Hungarian provisional government is going in the direction of democratization of the country."

PARIS, Feb. 14.—(AP)—Daily newspapers in the French capital, deploring lack of French participation in the Crimea conference, indicated today that extensive study would be necessary before the government could reply to invitations to join a Berlin control commission and to help sponsor the April 25 United Nations conference at San Francisco.

BELGRADE, Feb. 14.—(Reuters)—The first reaction of the Belgrade public to the news of the Crimea declaration is a feeling of great joy. They believe it means a rapid solution of their own government crisis, prolongation of which has caused much surprise and dissatisfaction here.

VATICAN CITY, Feb. 14.—(AP)—The Vatican secretariat of state described as without foundation today reports published abroad quoting authoritative Holy See sources as expressing fears that the Big Three Crimea decisions would sow the seed of future war. (The reports were not carried by the Associated Press or the Canadian Press.) There was no direct comment on the Crimea conference from the Vatican.

LONDON, Feb. 14.—(CP)—Prime Minister Churchill is expected to give the House of Commons a full report next week on the "Big Three" conference at Yalta. Americans Learn Of Canada's Role As Trading Nation

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—(CP)—Canada's role as a trading nation was placed before Americans yesterday by the Journal of Commerce which devoted a section of its annual trade number to the Dominion's trade and shipping. That Canada is equipped to expand trans-oceanic ship services and that Canada ranks as the first United States cash customer.

3 Powers Must Maintain Peace Of Selves, Others

WINNIPEG, Feb. 14.—(CP)—The three power nations—the British Empire, the United States and Russia—must agree to keep the peace themselves and take adequate measures to prevent other nations going to war in the post-war era, said Senator J. W. de B. Farris of Vancouver today.

In an address to a Winnipeg service club, Senator Farris said the three power nations are the only nations which can enforce peace.

"They also are the only nations, which separately or together, can make peace impossible if they refuse to work in concert and co-operation."

"It is my belief that only organized force can prevent war."

PREVENT WAR

Job of the three big powers, therefore, would be to limit armaments and prevent war while subordinate to this, Senator Farris suggested there should be a world organization along lines of the Dumbarton Oaks scheme.

Reorganization of the international court of justice, giving it powers to deal with international disputes both great and small, also was advocated.

"I am not sure to what extent the power nations will at first agree to full powers being given to this court," he said, "but I do believe its jurisdiction can be greatly extended."

MEET ANY CONDITIONS

"It is our task to meet conditions as they are with courage and vision to face the future resolved to have peace in our time, even at the risk of fighting for its achievement."

Any attempt to tie free trade negotiations in with the basic peace plans would create friction, Senator Farris believed.

Warning that peace at any price means no peace at all, Senator Farris advocated dismembering and restraining Germany after the war to such an extent no second criminal lunatic could organize Germans into an aggressive world menace.

"As for the Japanese, these brutish beasts will fare no better than their German partners."

Isley to Name Tribunal Member

REGINA, Feb. 14.—(CP)—Provincial Treasurer C. M. Fines said last night he had received a telegram from Federal Finance Minister Isley saying the Dominion government will immediately select a member for a three-man tribunal asked by the Saskatchewan CCF government to establish whether the senior government has power to halt payments due Saskatchewan under the wartime tax agreement.

Payment due Saskatchewan Jan. 31 has been withheld on instructions of Mr. Isley as part payment of the seed grain debt of $16,465,882 the Dominion has sought to collect from the province.

The provincial government has named Prof. Frank Scott of Montreal, CCF national chairman, as its tribunal representative.

The third member will be chosen by the two governments jointly. If they fail to agree, the appointment will be made by the chief justice of Canada.

LONDON, Feb. 14.—(Reuters)—Immediate re-establishment of the British Imperial Economic committee was urged yesterday by Aired Edwards, Labor member of parliament, in a question to Emrys Evans, under-secretary for dominion affairs.

Mr. Edwards said special problems were created by the transition from a wartime to a peace economy, and suggested that the dominion governments be approached in this matter.

Tokyo Says Allies Expect to Defeat Nazis by April 25

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—(BUP)—Radio Tokyo said today that the Crimea declaration showed Allied leaders expected to defeat Germany before April 25, the date fixed for the second international security conference at San Francisco.

Such an attitude is a "preposterous assumption," the Japanese broadcast said.

"It is not possible that the German people who are fighting to decide the rise and fall of a people will submit to unconditional surrender so easily," the broadcast said.

Tokyo made no comment on the fact that April 25 also is the date on which Russia can renounce the Russian-Japanese neutrality pact.

903,206 Germans Captured in West

PARIS, Feb. 14.—(CP)—Allied armies in western Europe have captured 903,206 German prisoners, of which some 5,000 have been seized in the current 1st Canadian Army thrust toward the Ruhr. The total is equivalent to 90 German divisions as they now are constituted, and greater than the entire number of German troops now believed on the western front.

reinforcements: that the overwhelming majority of the new drafts are men of fine fighting quality, and that stories of their inferiority have been grossly exaggerated. Moreover, the use made in the American senate of these "amen" charges to blacken Canada's war effort, the government feels, will be resented by all patriotic Canadians regardless of their political affiliations.

SHORT SESSION

Though The Bulletin informants cannot speak so positively on the subject of another session of this parliament as in confirming reports of an early summer general election, it is a good guess that there will be another short session of the House. Those who have been assuming that Prime Minister King committed himself to no further session of the present parliament need only review his language to discover that it contained no such positive promise.

Mr. King merely said the result of the Grey North by-election "raised the question of whether or not any useful purpose can be served by having another session of parliament before a general election" and that "the presence of the minister of defence in the House would be absolutely essential."

Thus, further developments might easily be stated as a reason for deciding the question on that a useful purpose might be served by another session; and, that a parliamentary representative of the defence minister might serve the purposes of informing parliament of defence matters. Further it would be most desirable to have parliament approve further hundreds of millions of dollars of expenditure for carrying Canada's part in the German war to a conclusion rather than provide these vital funds by governor's warrants.

WAKE ALLOWANCES

Since John Bracken, the Conservative leader, who is apparently continuing his campaign of personalities against General McNaughton, the defence minister, is not in the House either, both gentlemen would be free to carry on their attacks and counter-attacks in the press and on the platform. The public would regard all such utterances as straight political fight and make due allowance therefor.

Ottawa, as usual, is rife with rumors of cabinet reconstruction, redoubled since the positive announcement of Hon. Norman Macdonald, state secretary, in Windsor, that he will not be a candidate for re-election. It is obvious, of course, that there must be some additions to the cabinet.

Months ago, Hon. T. A. Crerar, minister of mines and resources, announced that he would drop out of politics. Hon. C. G. Power, minister for "Irish" quit his post during the conscription fight of last fall. Gossip still goes on that Hon. Angus Macdonald desires to get back into the Nova Scotia provincial field.

The envisioned departure of Messrs. Crerar, MacLarty and Macdonald probably was at the bottom of L'Action Catholique's scare story recently that some "imperialist" ministers would be dropped from the cabinet. Any minister known to favor the conscription fight, of course, in the eyes of such a Quebec journal is necessarily an "imperialist."

NO CHANGE IN POLICY
It can be accepted, however, on authoritative information obtained by The Edmonton Bulletin this morning that any changes in the cabinet will have absolutely nothing to do with the government's conscription policy. There is no likelihood that Hon. Mr. Power, for example, might return to the cabinet. Reports, too, that Paul Martin, M.P., Essex East, whose constituency adjoins that of Mr. MacLarty's in Essex West, might replace the latter, are apparently just guesses.

A cabinet reconstruction must come to replace ministers who want to depart for reasons of health or personal business just as there must be some 16 appointments shortly to the Canadian Senate to fill vacancies. But the government was not the slightest intention of altering the national policy of prosecuting Canada's part in the war to a vigorous conclusion by means of all necessary monetary appropriations and enforcement of general military overseas service without further reference to parliament.

mile beyond it in the direction of Udem, which lies southeast of Goch.

Other United Kingdom troops forced a new crossing of the Niers river and captured Viller, five miles west of Goch. The gains set up the transport centre, one of the foundation stones of the Siegfried line, for attack from the north and west.

The battle area forged before Goch was within two miles of the town at some points, reports from the front said.

FLOODS HANDICAP

Floods threatened the offensive on all sides. They were spreading over roads southeast of Kieve, and on the other side of the front the Maas was beginning to rise. Its level rose nearly a foot today.

Northeast of Kieve, Canadian troops captured Kellen, a mile and a half along the Emmerich road, and thrust an armored patrol into Warbeyen, two and a half miles northeast of Kieve. The town is two miles from the ferry crossing at Emmerich.

In that sector the Canadians were blowing up dikes in an attempt to avoid dangerous canalization of the flood waters.

2 COUNTER-ATTACKS

Two of the four German counter-attacks were made against United Kingdom forces who struck through Badburg and on down the Uden road. German armor and less than a battalion of troops emerged from the woods around Moyland, but were turned back by artillery before they made contact with Crerar's infantry.

The new crossing of the Niers was made south of Zelderheid. The troops, after taking Villiers, struck out a mile south of that village and ran into two counter-attacks which were handled handsomely.

Both sides were throwing increasingly-heavy armored and infantry forces into the sudden Rhine-land plain and field dispatches said elements of seven Nazi divisions already had been identified in the battle.

DEEPEN CORRIDOR

Far to the south, Lt.-Gen. George S. Patton's American Third Army widened and deepened its corridor through the Siegfried line beyond Pruen and added a few hundred bitterly-contested yards to its bridgeheads on German soil across the Sure and Our rivers.

On a front of almost 100 miles between Crerar's and Patton's forces, three other Allied armies still were poised along the west bank of the Roer river waiting to join the assault on Germany's west wall.

Bracken Asks McNaughton Be Replaced

OTTAWA, Feb. 14.—(CP)—John Bracken, Progressive Conservative national leader, said in a statement last night that Prime Minister Mackenzie King should replace Defence Minister McNaughton immediately and "bring to the office a man whose policy will command the confidence of our fighting men and the people at home in Canada."

"This," he said, "was the only course Mr. King could follow in the light of the result of the Grey North election, which he described as a 'clear and unequivocal reply' to the 'King-McNaughton policy of a limited draft.'"

Mr. Bracken said he had read with "surprise and disappointment" Gen. McNaughton's statement in which he said the Canadian army now has sufficient reinforcements overseas to meet continuous operations over several months.

"Instead of an announcement of the defence minister's resignation and his replacement by a man who could carry the confidence of the troops overseas and of the people of Canada," said Mr. Bracken, "we read today in the press that he has released the very arguments he used in the by-election campaign."

Text of Mr. Bracken's statement follows:

I have read Gen. McNaughton's statement with surprise and disappointment. In the first speech I made after returning from overseas two weeks ago, I said that the best news that could go to the troops over there would be word of the repudiation of the King-McNaughton policy of reinforcement by the defeat of General McNaughton in Grey North.

My whole point was that he had permitted his name and the military position he had held to be used in an attempt to mislead the people of Canada regarding the restricted reinforcement policy which was causing great bitterness amongst our boys overseas, and which was the chief cause of the humiliating desertion of some 6,300 men after they had been warned for service overseas.

VIEW ON DEFEAT

I am not in any doubt that Gen. McNaughton's defeat was a source of great satisfaction to the men in the army overseas; for it would mean to them that a fair cross section of their own people had repudiated the policy which he had undertaken.

I have been head of a government in this country long enough to know that important decisions such as the change of a minister cannot be made overnight, but I had expected that Gen. McNaughton's resignation would be received immediately after his decisive rejection by the voters, or that if it was not forthcoming, that Mr. King in duty would ask for it.

The country has waited for a week. Instead of an announcement of the defence minister's resignation and his replacement by a man who could carry the confidence of the troops overseas and of the people of Canada, we read today in the press that he has released the very arguments he used in the by-election campaign.

JOINED IN OFFENSIVE

The defence minister says that Canadian soldiers are now joined in an offensive which may be the opening phase of one of the world's most critical and decisive battles. The fact is that they have been ever have witnessed at a Wilhelmstrasse press conference.

The Swiss Telegraph Agency said the official German foreign office publication "Diplomatische Informations" commented that the Red Army in eastern Germany already had "placed itself outside any moral qualification."

"DEMORALIZES" WAR

"There would be no surprise if such a plan of destruction as the Yalta statement revealed would bring the complete 'demoralization' of war," the publication said.

It contended that the statement, far from hastening Germany's defeat, would steel the spirit of resistance inside the Reich.

"Every doubter and every optimist throughout Germany now understands that Germany as a nation and Germans as individuals could not fare worse than if they capitulated now," the publication said.

Reliable reports reaching Stockholm in such an offensive since last June, and their reinforcement and the method of reinforcing them were the issues before the electors of Grey North.

There is one important thing to remember. It is that the issue is not merely the number of reinforcements, but the method by which those reinforcements are obtained. The "King-McNaughton" method is the one which has caused great bitterness overseas, and has brought anguish to thousands of Canadian homes.

It has created such a sense of deep injustice between the men overseas and the draftees at home, and even between different groups of draftees themselves that we may reap a terrible harvest from that feeling for the rest of our lives if action to correct it is not taken immediately.

UNEQUIVOCAL REPLY

Mr. King chose Grey North as a testing ground for the King-McNaughton policy of a limited draft. From this testing ground has come a clear and unequivocal reply. In the press that he has released the very arguments he used in the by-election campaign.

It is to replace the defence minister immediately and bring to the office a man whose policy will command the confidence of our fighting men and the people at home in Canada.

Shortage of Paper Hits Love This Day But Sentiment There

By HELEN BANNERMAN

OTTAWA, Feb. 14.—(CP)—There is plenty of sentiment on St. Valentine's Day today, but not much else. Hearts and flowers, with plenty of paper lace printed around them—the paper shortage has taken a swipe at love—and tender verses hoping for speedy reunion, are being delivered this year by Dan Cupid disguised as postmen or airgraph microfilm developers.

The big many-layered confections, festooned with lace flowers, plush hearts and miniature stage sets are a thing of the past. But the sentiment is still there.

Soldiers in the trenches who have no means of getting commercial cards are relying on their own skill as artists and poets to turn airgraph forms into valentines. Those received here by the girls of the Canadian Women's Army Corps have been decorated with cupid, hearts and arrows, and verses heavy with nostalgia or looking forward to happy reunions.

The post office department, which has the extra mail well in hand, has also been backing a successful campaign for individually-designed airgraph valentines for mothers, wives or sweethearts to send to the service boys overseas.

harm from Berlin said Nazi authorities were concerned over extensive thefts of arms from Volkstrum (home guard) barracks outside Berlin.

FEAR FOREIGNERS

The Nazis were said to fear that foreign workers, war prisoners and native anti-Nazis may try to stab the German army in the back as soon as military events force the Gestapo to loosen its grip on the German home front.

A Berlin dispatch to the Stockholm newspaper Dagens Nyheter said German authorities had ordered that all guns, rifles, pistols, machine guns, tommy guns, signal pistols and hand grenades must be registered by Feb. 20.

The arms are needed for the Volkstrum, the dispatch said.

Sir Alan Brooke May Get Control Commission Post

LONDON, Feb. 14.—(Reuters)—Field Marshal Sir Alan Brooke, chief of the Imperial general staff, is likely to be the British representative on the Allied control commission which the Crimea conference announced, is to sit in Berlin to administer the terms of Germany's defeat. It is understood here.

Wilson Broadbent, the Daily Mail's diplomatic correspondent, said Sir Alan will have Gen. Eisenhower as his United States colleague.

If Sir Alan is appointed, Mr. Broadbent said, it would leave Field Marshal Sir Harold Alexander and Field Marshal Montgomery free for other duties in Europe, or perhaps the Far East.

Probe Refuses Request Brief Be Withdrawn

commissioner, G. A. Elliott of Edmonton, asked if it was not peculiar that Canadian references had been avoided in quoted matter throughout the brief. Mr. Spence replied there had been no conscious effort to do so.

Before he left the witness stand, the Investment Association president also was questioned closely by R. H. Milliken, counsel for the Saskatchewan Wheat Pool, who took exception to a reference to "government assistance" of wheat pools between 1924 and 1929.

NO GOVERNMENT AID

Mr. Milliken declared—without denial from Mr. Spence—that there was no government aid to wheat pools between those years.

The Investment Association's brief, arguing against continued exemption of co-operatives from income and excess profits taxes, was one of seven submitted yesterday, the second day of the commission's three-day Toronto sitting which will end Wednesday.

Also heard yesterday was a joint submission of the Ontario Insurance Agents' Association and the Toronto Insurance Conference. It declared that the "present advantage enjoyed by organizations operating on the co-operative, mutual and reciprocal basis, under the tax laws of Canada, cannot help but cause concern" and urged abolishment of non-taxation of co-operatives in any enterprise.

The brief of the Investment Dealers' Association of Canada said there was a sharp diversity of objectives among co-operatives, even an antagonism. Consumers' co-ops strove to eliminate profit while producer co-ops struggled to secure profit.

"Everywhere," it said, "there are those who attempt to use the co-operative movement as a cloak to do away with personal ownership and abolish capitalism."

SURPLUSES CLAIMED

The brief said the association could not believe the co-operatives desired to escape a fair share of the costs of war, yet under the present tax set-up, co-operative societies during the war had been "accumulating surpluses, while others engaged in competitive effort are taxed to the bone."

Directing his remarks to the commission chairman, Mr. Francis submitted the brief was a slap on hundreds of thousands of co-operative members. He asked Mr. Spence if he would withdraw the brief but the latter said he would not.

TORONTO, Feb. 14.—(CP)—The Royal Commission on taxation of co-operatives yesterday heard the story of the growth of the Vineland Growers' Co-operative Limited of Ontario's Niagara peninsula and how it got back some $3,500 in mistakenly paid taxes.

Roger Clark of the Vineland organization, organized in 1913, told how in 1932 auditing of the organization's accounts was being done by a local auditor with the aid of a solicitor. But he was showing the patronage dividend of the co-operative as taxable reserve and so, for a number of years the little organization faithfully paid out thousands of dollars in taxes to which it wasn't liable.

"We employed a new auditor in 1937," said Mr. Clark, to the laughter of the court.

bers, when Alfred Farmlin, Edmonton, and W. J. Dick, now representative in Edmonton of the Dominion Oil Controller, were appointed as part-time members.

Premier Manning in 1943 restored the whole board to a full-time status, at which time Carl E. Cook, Calgary, replaced Mr. Dick. At this time, Dr. Wright was retained as chairman.

Administration of the retiring chairman has been the target of criticism on many occasions, both on the floor of the Legislature and by labor organizations, particularly the United Mine Workers of America.

The operations of the Workmen's Compensation Act in Alberta was subject of a Legislative enquiry late in 1942, when a board headed by Dr. J. L. Robinson, Social Credit MLA for Medicine Hat, conducted an exhaustive investigation into the whole workmen's compensation set-up.

THE MIRACLE OF WARTIME PRODUCTION IN ALBERTA

OVER 41 MILLION TONS OF COAL

1939 TO 1945

If the Coal mined in Alberta since 1939 was to be loaded in freight cars and assembled into one solid train, that train would contain approximately 913,900 cars and stretch over a distance nearly equal to the miles between Vancouver and Moscow. This amazing production achievement has been accomplished in spite of the acute labor and material shortages which the industry has had to face during the war years. This record production of Forty-One Million Tons demonstrates, once again, the initiative and resourcefulness which has long been associated with Alberta and its people. It is with renewed hope and confidence that we can look to that postwar period when the progressive Coal Industry of this Province will again play a major rehabilitation role in developing the wide and varied by-products of coal from Alberta's vast resources.

Free copies of a booklet containing the entire series of informative details on Alberta's Wartime Production may be obtained at the conclusion of the schedule. Please send in your name to Calgary Brewing & Malting Co. Ltd., Calgary.

FIVE APPREHENDED

Five men were apprehended around 10 p.m. on the night of Feb. 12, and brought back to Sault Ste. Marie by one RCMP and one army provost. The other two police officers waited around the hideout shanty and made seven more arrests about 4 a.m. yesterday.

"There was no violence or anything like that," said one police source.

The men were well supplied with food, including more butter, it was said, than ordinary citizens could purchase in Sault Ste. Marie. They also had plentiful supplies of canned goods.

The supplies were such as to indicate persons outside their hideout camp had been supplying them.

The four defaulters taken in the Mount McKay country were said to have hidden in similar fashion to the men at Sault Ste. Marie—in a mountain-side cabin. They were believed to have been there for more than a month. Three were arrested Sunday night and the fourth early on Monday.

NO RESISTANCE

There were no reports of resistance on the part of these men.

The arrests served to bear out the recent statement of Maj. E. K. Carter, officer commanding No. 40 Provost Company at Winnipeg. "Once we're on a man's trail we keep after him until we catch him."

NANAIMO, B.C., Feb. 14.—(CP)—Two deserters from Canada's home defence army were picked up by Nanaimo and British Columbia police on a street here Monday and taken to Camp Nanaimo, it was learned last night.

The soldiers, from terrace B.C. were members of the Prince of Wales Rangers which moved from Vernon, B.C. to eastern Canada last December.

One other army deserter was picked up last week, police said.

The soldiers said they had come to Nanaimo from Texada island, a few miles north of here in the Georgia Strait.

Canada has sent several groups of officers and men to various parts of the Pacific as observers and to gain battle experience.

Last Trips In Operational Tour Are Hardest of All, Officer Says

PONOKA—The last few flights over enemy territory required to complete a tour of operations are, to most RCAF aircrew, the most nerve-racking of the entire series. Flt.-Lt. J. D. Morison, now home on leave, is no exception.

It was the next to the last flight that bothered the Ponoka officer most, according to the story he told correspondents. The "do" was a daylight raid over enemy lines, and so far as his own aircraft was concerned, all went well. But the aircraft flying next to him was damaged by enemy action and the pilot apparently lost control. Unwilling to leave the other plane until some kind of control was regained, Morison's boys "stood by" until the other pilot managed to level his plane to the extent that the crew could bail out. After that they resumed their operation.

Well-known here, the 23-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Morison completed his tour without injury to himself. But he saw plenty of action in spite of the fact that he never required first aid. On one occasion, after bombing Dusseldorf, his aircraft was chased by two enemy fighters for more than 150 miles, on low gas, over enemy territory.

Again, after bombing the railway yards at Trappes, near Paris, just before D-day, his bomber-aimer was wounded fatally and the aircraft pretty well shot up before it returned to base.

The officer was born at Vermilion and educated there and at Ponoka. Prior to enlisting he was employed at his father's hardware store. He took his RCAF training at Regina, Virden, Man., Dauphin and Prince Edward Island, receiving his wings at Dauphin. All of his operational duty was out of England, and while he liked that country, he was even more impressed with Scotland. He regards as his outstanding service incident the part he played in the RCAF support of ground troops in the battle of Caen.

"The boys overseas like lots of mail, and get a particular kick out of receiving clippings from their home town newspapers," he said. "Presents of clothing can always be used, particularly Canadian-made shirts with non-detachable collars. Shopping is a little difficult for service people over there."

After the war he plans to take a University course in engineering.

Increase Teachers' Pay Is Resolution

CHERHILL: To make possible the payment of a "basic statutory minimum salary" of $1,200 a year, a resolution passed by the executive of the Lac St. Anne local of the Alberta Teachers' Association, urges the provincial executive to "take every possible step to induce the government to so raise school grants."

The executive met this week at Onoway to appoint delegates to the annual general meeting of Alberta teachers to be held in Edmonton during the Easter break. The appointed delegates are G. M. Crawford, K. J. Rabkin, F. J. Woodhouse and J. Woyetka.

It was further resolved that the provincial executive make immediate request of the Alberta government to recommend to the legislature the immediate raising of the present statutory minimum to $1,200.

Suitcase Fire Spoils Clothes For No Reason

CLIVE.—File this under "Gremkins" please.

It seems there was a traveling salesman who decided to stop the night at the Clive hotel. So he got himself a room and set his suitcase down in a corner.

All of a sudden, the suitcase bursts into flames, for no good reason whatsoever. Naturally, the salesman carried the suitcase outside before any damage was caused the room or its furnishings. Opened up, it was discovered that a lot of clothing was damaged almost beyond repair. It's hard to wear a pair of pants with one leg burned off.

The salesman still can't figure out what caused it, and local residents deny the existence of ghouls. Must be just one of those things.

Stork Didn't Wait Arrival Of Train

ELK POINT: The heading on this story should be "Stork Beats Train." It concerns the unusual circumstances under which a woman, travelling via CNR from Heinsburg to Elk Point, became the mother of a healthy off-spring.

After travelling 20 miles to Heinsburg from her farm, by horse-drawn sleigh, the prospective mother won the race for the train but lost the race with the stork. The child was born with the assistance of fellow passengers, and when Elk Point was reached, mother and child were taken to the Elk Point hospital, eight blocks, by the local drayman.

The child arrived safely and both are doing well.

Call From Coast Is Birthday Treat

BRUCE—A long-distance telephone call from her son, Silas Kjosness, at Vancouver, was the highlight of a surprise birthday party given in honor of Mrs. Paul Kjosness. The guest of honor received a set of salad knives from district friends. In compliment to Miss Kathleen Mizera, bride-elect of this month, Mrs. E. Bahlitz entertained at her home about 30 friends. Miss Mizera's engagement to Ole Lund of Bruce was announced recently.

Sun Life of Canada

yesterday... today... tomorrow

THE Sun Life of Canada is an institution of Public Service conducted in the interests of its policyholders. Such was the purpose of its founders in 1865, a purpose which has been proudly maintained through nearly eight decades of continuous development. And such will be the purpose that will guide the destiny of this Company in the generations yet to be.

The premiums paid by its more than one million policyholders go into a common fund operated for their benefit. It is out of this fund that policy obligations are paid as they become due. The savings resulting from efficient management, apart from a very small shareholders' interest, go entirely to the policyholders. Each individual policyholder has an interest in the common fund according to the particular form of contract he holds. The relationship of the Company to its policyholders is in the nature of a trusteeship under which the Company agrees to carry out its obligations with the money entrusted to its care. The assets of a life assurance company represent the funds accumulated from the premiums paid by the policyholders. It is the responsibility of the company so to manage these funds as to ensure the faithful carrying out of every obligation, and to endeavour to furnish life assurance at as low a cost as possible. The insurance laws provide ample safeguards to protect the interests of the policyholders and to assure sound administration.

In the past year, the new business secured by the Sun Life of Canada amounted to $220,323,142. The assurances in force increased by $139,107,959 and now total $3,312,525,426. The benefits paid during the year were $80,582,921, which brings the total amount paid since the founding of the Company to $1,710,446,363. The Company's activities during 1944 give ample evidence of its continued progress. The business and the assets of the Company have increased, and substantial additions have been made to surplus and other funds to further safeguard policyholders' interests.

Arthur A. Wood

President and Managing Director

SUN LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY OF CANADA

A copy of the Annual Report for 1944 will be mailed to all policyholders.

Germans Move War Prisoners To New Camps

OTTAWA, Feb. 14.—(CP)—The War Information Board disclosed yesterday that large groups of British prisoners of war and some Canadian internees are being moved from eastern to central Germany. The board said the prisoners were reported to be in high spirits and all expected to be freed eventually by the Russians.

The prisoners, in groups of about 1,000, march approximately 12½ miles daily. Each prisoner is issued with a Red Cross parcel and a loaf of bread, and arrangements have been made to accommodate prisoners at night.

The 1,000 prisoners from Stalag 344 at Lamsdorf have been moved to Stalag 8A at Gorlitz. Prisoners from Stalag 2B at Hammerstein are on the move and are believed headed for Stalag 2D at Stargard. Hammerstein is about 140 kilometres southwest of Danzig.

OFFICER PRISONERS

Officer prisoners from Oflag 64 at Schubin are moving toward Stalag 3A, which is south of Berlin, at Luckenwalde. Men from Stalag 8B at Tschobitz are moving on foot towards Nuremberg, and airmen from Luft 7 at Bankau, on the Polish border, are marching towards Sagan, southeast of Berlin. Stalags 20S and 20B at Thurn and Marienburg, south of Danzig, also are moving west.

The civilians interned at Kreuzburg in flag VIII Z, among whom are 19 Canadians, have been moved to Stalag 1B at Spittal on Drave (Ostmark).

The board said that friends and relatives have been advised to write to the old addresses until the new ones have been verified.

LONDON, Feb. 14.—(Reuters)—Twelve German prisoners of war camps, which once contained about 60,000 British and Commonwealth prisoners, have either been overrun by Soviet forces or are in their direct path. Sir James Grigg, minister of war, stated in reply to a question in the House of Commons yesterday.

"It is clear that the Germans intended to move the prisoners from these camps to central Germany and considerable transfers have taken place. The men are apparently moved on foot by daily stages of between 12 and 18 miles. It is likely, however, that many have been overtaken by the Soviet forces," Grigg said.

NAMES PICKED UP

Some scores of names have been picked up from Lublin radio, and the next of kin were being informed.

The camps referred to are Stalags 2B, 2D, 344, 3C, 3B, 8B, 8C, 8A, 20B and Stalag Luft VII. Stalag Luft IV and Stalag Luft VII (Canadians held in that part of Germany)—an estimated 600 in number—are believed to have been located for the most part at Stalags 8B, 2D and 344.

Landlord to Pay For Profiteering

CALGARY, Feb. 14.—(CP)—Julius Vincze, Leithbridge landlord, accused of "rental profiteering" by Magistrate Ben Metcalfe of that city, must pay a $100 fine imposed by the magistrate for renting premises above the rental fixed by rentals judge G. J. Ford, according to a decision of the Alberta appeal court in Calgary yesterday.

The magistrate had stated it was the worst case involving rentals he had ever heard.

According to the evidence, Judge Ford fixed the rental for the upstairs part of Vincze's home at Leithbridge, at $18 a month. There was no separate entrance and the landlord and tenants used the bathroom and heating facilities in common.

Subsequently Vincze rented the rooms separately to three girls at $9.50 a month, bringing the total rental up to $28.50 a month.

Chief Justice Horace Harvey said he agreed with the magistrate that the rental increase was "rather outrageous."

In addition to the fine, Vincze must refund rent money paid in excess of the fixed rental.

British Children, Long in Jamaica, Returning Home

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 14.—(AP)—Sixty-five British children passed through here yesterday en route to an England they "don't remember very well." They have been in Jamaica for more than four years.

Clinging to the hands of their nurses, who brought them out of Britain at the height of the 1940 blitz, the boys and girls spoke vaguely of the homes they used to know, of English snow, "mummy" and "daddy" whom they remembered but slightly and in some instances not at all.

Some of the youngest left home as infants, but even the oldest said they had been in Jamaica so long "it seemed like home."

The children were accompanied by 89 adults.

Need New Orders To Keep Aircraft Plant Operating

WINNIPEG, Feb. 14.—(CP)—Plans to halt a proposed lay-off of 1,000 workers at the MacDonald Bros. Aircraft Company here will depend on securing new contracts, it was learned yesterday.

Grant MacDonald, president, plans to leave for the east Wednesday night to negotiate new contracts, if possible, to maintain work in the plant's war production department.

Mr. MacDonald will visit Toronto, Montreal, Ottawa and New York. Recently it was indicated in Ottawa new contracts would be awarded Winnipeg plants to keep them in production.

Hail Agreement

CHUNGKING, Feb. 14.—(Reuters)—News of "The Big Three" agreement was welcomed in Chinese circles as auguring well for future accord on Far Eastern questions. China will readily respond to the invitation to be one of the five sponsors of the prospective United Nations conference in San Francisco April 25.

Prime Minister Likely Delegate At Allied Parley

By FRANK FLAHERTY
OTTAWA, Feb. 14.—(CP)—Calling of a United Nations conference on world security for San Francisco on April 25 promises a busy few months for Prime Minister MacKenzie King.

Canada will be expected to play an important role in the proposed permanent United Nations organization because of its geographical position, economic and military power. The Canadian government is interested in the form of the organization and particularly in the extent to which smaller and medium-sized powers are to be given a voice in decisions relating to peace and war.

KING MAY ATTEND

It is expected all the leading nations will be represented at San Francisco by their foreign ministers and Mr. King is the foreign minister for Canada.

The conference, it was felt, might be one additional reason which would suffice to lead the government to fix the date of the general election in late June rather than late April or early May.

The ministers met for a short session yesterday, their first this week.

Announcement by State Secretary McLarty in Windsor that he will not be a candidate at the general election creates the fourth actual and potential vacancy in ministerial ranks. Resources Minister Cresser has announced his intention of dropping out and Mr. King has not yet replaced Hon. C. G. Power who resigned as air minister more than two months ago. Navy Minister Macdonald has indicated he will not contest another election.

It is considered possible one of the portfolios may go to one or other of two active parliamentary secretaries, Paul Martin of Essex East, the riding adjoining Mr. McLarty's which is Essex West, or Lionel Chevrier of Stormont.

Zionist Dies

JERUSALEM, Feb. 14.—(AP)—Miss Henrietta Szold, Zionist leader and social worker, died at Hadassah hospital here last night. She was 85 years old and was the leader in Jewish women's work in Palestine. She was largely responsible for bringing 13,000 Jewish children from countries of Nazi persecution to Palestine.

In Dramatic Speech Lost Son in Operation, Senator Asks Safeguards

HARRISBURG, Pa., Feb. 14.—(AP)—Tommy, eight-year-old son of State Senator John J. Haluska, died on a hospital operating table last night. Monday night State Senator Haluska, himself a hospital superintendent, introduced a bill compelling surgeons to make a careful pre-operative physical check-up of all surgery patients, except in emergencies.

"My son had a birthmark on the back of his neck," Haluska said in a dramatic speech on the Senate floor. "I consulted an eminent surgeon, who advised me that it could be removed without the slightest danger."

"Just before the operation the surgeon reassured me, but my son turned to me and said, 'Daddy, are you my friend?'"

"Of course I am, Tommy," I said.

"Well, if you are," said the boy, "you will never let them do this to me. If you let them do this, I am going to die."

"The doctor scoffed, and took him by the hand and led him from the room. My son was saying the Lord's Prayer as he walked from the hallway. Twenty-two minutes later he was dead."

The senator, who is superintendent of Miners' hospital, Spangler, Pa., did not name the hospital or surgeon involved, or give the medical explanation of Tommy's death.

Premier of Quebec Fears For Rights

By GUY GAGNON
QUEBEC, Feb. 14.—(CP)—Every Canadian had a sacred duty to co-operate in winning the war, opposition leader Godbout said last night in the debate on the throne speech in the Quebec legislative assembly. He did not believe conscription to be the best means of winning the war. He said he thought that method to be "worst of all."

Premier Duplessis spoke after Mr. Godbout and said it was important to know if Canadians of Quebec "shall keep our rights for us by our ancestors."

The Union Nationale was ready to co-operate with those who wished to respect the rights given provinces under the British North America Act, "but only with these ones."

Mr. Duplessis was ready to collaborate with the Dominion government in the application of a fair system of family allowances but he was opposed to the present federal legislation, "because it is aimed toward the large families of Quebec."

Heads Red Cross

SASKATOON, Feb. 14.—(CP)—A M. Blue, president of the Saskatchewan Red Cross branch, was elected president of the provincial branch of the Canadian Red Cross Society at its annual meeting here yesterday. Mr. Blue, who has been first vice-president for two years, succeeds Dr. J. Whedley of Regina.

Soldiers' Release Asked by Court

MONTREAL, Feb. 14.—(CP)—Henri Nolin of Montreal yesterday applied to the superior court for a writ of habeas corpus asking that Laurent Vezou, member of the home defence (NRMA) army be produced in court and that the Canadian Army show reasons why Vezou should not be discharged.

The petition said that Vezou had been enrolled in the Canadian Army on an erroneous certificate that he was fit for military service. It added that Vezou's state of health was such that he was incapable of undergoing training in the army.

Mr. Justice Fabbre Surveylor set hearing of the case for Friday.

It was the third such case instituted in Montreal courts since the start of the war. Monday, Doris Roch petitioned for a similar writ on behalf of her brother, Roland Roch, and the other case, instituted by Marcel Bouey on his own behalf, is expected to come before the courts Thursday.

Coal Stabilization Board For Canada Is Asked to Probe

AMHERST, N.S., Feb. 14.—(CP)—A coal stabilization board for Canada was proposed to the Carroll Royal Commission on coal yesterday as it wound up the Nova Scotia sittings of its first swing through the eastern fields. It will sit next in New Brunswick.

Mayor A. J. Mason on behalf of the town council of Springhill, N.S., advocated the stabilization board, which he said would replace the fuel controller and be clothed with similar powers.

Under such a board, he suggested, imports should be regulated and central Canadian fuel purchasers should be made to buy a percentage of Nova Scotia coal in their quotas.

Canadian Students Given Free Tuition By Sydney College

MELBOURNE, Australia, Feb. 14.—(CP)—The University of Sydney has decided to provide free tuition to Canadian students who travel to Australia after the war. The university announced that it would open its courses, whether for a term, a year or for longer periods to Canadian students, without fees. The university may seek a Canadian historian as the next holder of the chair of American history, which is to be inaugurated in March by Dixon Wedder, a former Rhodes scholar who is professor of history at the University of Southern California.

Daylight Saving

A great many Edmonton people will learn with satisfaction that the City Council has agreed to ask the Dominion Government to reconsider the whole question of daylight saving in the western area.

Daylight saving, as some of the aldermen pointed out, is not appropriate to the geographical position of this district. During the winter months, particularly, the device starts the wheels of industry and commerce at such an early hour that power and light are not saved, but wasted.

During the summer months, Edmonton has such lengthy hours of daylight that the system is not necessary.

Daylight saving, of course, has many learned proponents who are so wedded to its alleged blessings that even unanswerable arguments will not cause them to be unfaithful to it.

Therefore it is not proposed that the pros and cons of the matter should be exhaustively debated here.

The point is, and the City Council agrees, that a satisfactory case for daylight saving has not been made out and that experience has not added to its lustre.
That point appears to be soundly taken.

Despite the Mud

Even the sneered-at but tax-paying and vitality-interesting "arm-chair strategist" can understand that when an attacking force has to wallow through seas of mud and water the advantage lies with the defenders.

But this advantage of a boggy foreground did not enable the defenders of Kleve to prevent the Canadians capturing that northern bastion of the Siegfried defences. Nor did counter-attacks by hastily summoned panzer divisions turn the cap-tors out of the place.

This gain, together with the capture of Prum by troops of the American 3rd Army, is said to have put 140 miles of the enemy defences under threat of a general attack.

Canada's Army has been given what could become a decisive role in the process of dismantling the Siegfried forts. Its objective is said to be to cut around the northern end of this string of forts, and clear the way for a sweeping attack along the rear of the fortifications. Success there could make the whole enemy line untenable, and compel Von Rundstedt to pull his forces back to the Rhine.

That our men can make headway despite the mud and water is evidence of their courage, stamina, training, equipment and confidence.

St. Valentine's Day

It is, of course, a coincidence that St.
Valentine's Day should fall this year on Ash Wednesday, the first day of Lent. Yet it is a coincidence out of which thoughtful swains will weave a useful moral.

St. Valentine's Day, as we recollect, has something to do with lovers. It is an occasion, we are told, upon which young men—and old men too, for that matter—lavish lacy confections of hearts and flowers upon their fair ladies as tokens of undying affection.

It is a pretty conceit, as these things go, and is one of the most time-honored customs in our history.

That is why we venture to find satisfaction in the coincidence which adds a needed touch of solemnity to the frivolities of the day.

Those who celebrate St. Valentine's festival are presumably the victims of love.
And therein lies the point. For falling in love is an essentially solemn business, sometimes a tragic business.

It is a tragic business for those whose loved ones are across the sea. It is a solemn business for anyone whose imagination can carry him or her past the point of amorous hilarity. To be entirely serious about it, love is always a matter of sacrifice, not infrequently of penance. Love is a process of perpetual giving. And the sacrifices of Lent are not inappropriate to the consideration of it.

It is probably a wholesome thing, then,
that today one despatches frolicsome epistles with one hand and assumes the sackcloth and ashes with the other.

A Strong Foundation

Japan was not, of course, on the agenda at Yalta, for Russia is not at war with that country. No doubt it got attention when Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Churchill met at Malta en route to the three-way conference, attention which Tokyo will understand bodes no good for itself.

Berlin registers its disapproval of the conference decisions by saying over the official radio that these leave it no alternative but to fight on. Apparently there was still a flicker of hope there that the Big Three would tone down the demand for unconditional surrender and offer soft terms in order to get early peace. If so, the flicker has been blacked-out. Germany is told plainly that the Nazi power is to be smashed completely. There is to be no truce with Hitlerism.

That isn't all. Germany is to be disarmed. Its army is to be disbanded. Its war plants are to be pulled down. The country is to be split four ways for military occupation of indefinite duration, by forces of Russia, the United States, France and Great Britain. German industry is to be put under disciplinary custody, to make sure that it will not again be turned to the forging of weapons. War criminals are to be punished. The militaristic caste is to be put permanently out of business.

But there will be no reign of terror, and non-Nazi Germans are invited to stop piling up needless grief for themselves by supporting the gangsters who have already brought them to the verge of swiftly-approaching ruin.

The background of the plans outlined in the communiqué is provided by the Atlantic Charter and the Dumbarton Oaks proposals. The Charter laid down the principles which are to be followed in the war-settlement and the restoration of Europe.
The Dumbarton Oaks proposals are a basis for discussion when representatives of all the United Nations meet in conference at San Francisco in April to build the structure of a new League of Nations—under whatever name may be chosen.

Former President Herbert Hoover aptly described the Yalta decisions as "an agreement that provides a strong foundation on which to rebuild the world."

If there are any civilians living on Iwo Jama they must be sorry for it. That pinpoint island has been bombed 65 days running.

The battle of Budapest is over. Moscow says 30,000 Nazis were captured in the last two days of struggle. Berlin explains, ingeniously if unconvincingly, that the garrison "broke out" of the city in order to "continue fighting in the fields"—fields somewhere along the back track to Germany. In any case the Hungarian capital is in Russian hands, and Vienna is the next important stop on the road to Munich and Berchtesgaden.

Sabbath Day

Editor, Bulletin: Permit me to correct a mis-statement which a correspondent made in this column.
He denied that the early Christians did away with the observance of Saturday as the day of sanctification.
He contends facts. Evidently he thinks that civil legislation must necessarily coincide with church law. It is true that Constantine in the fourth century forbade certain kinds of works to be done on Sunday, but it was not he who changed the day of rest from Saturday to Sunday. The change was made in the time of the Apostles,
Acts 20, 7; 1 Cor. 16, 2.

Not Saints

Editor, Bulletin: In one of your recent editorials you have made it quite plain that the noise the Labor-Progressive or communist group is making, is not in proposition to the importance that group plays in political life of Canada.

This came to my mind when reading the noisy statement of Ukrainian Communists at Toronto. They "deny" that the Ukrainian Canadian Committee represents the majority of the Canadian Ukrainians.

The said committee was formed at the outbreak of this war for the purpose of increasing and co-ordinating Canada's war efforts. (This was done at the time when communists were doing everything in their power to sabotage these efforts. The executive of the Canadian Ukrainian Committee consists of clergy and laymen, who represent some 650 churches and over 1400 communities, or about 90 per cent of the Ukrainian population in Canada.)

The record of the committee in the past five war years speaks for itself. Its participation in war loans, sales of war stamps and saving certificates, Canadian Red Cross campaigns and other voluntary war services have been praised by government officials, by the press and on the floor of the Canadian parliament.

As to the Communist group, may I quote the words of Beverly Baxter in his recent London Letter (MacLean's magazine, Feb. 31) ("to them")... The war dates from the day that Russia became a belligerent. Before that it was a capitalist war or an imperialist war or an economic war, but with Russia's participation it became a holy war, and the communists are the saints."

Maybe they are "saints", but not to those who know their past, who know where they are getting their orders from and who know their ultimate aims. LOYALIST.

Five Human Races

Editor, Bulletin: There appeared in your issue of Feb. 6 a letter over the signature "Bernard Rose," stating that there are only three distinct races of humanity—the white, the "colored," and the yellow. I do not believe that this statement is quite correct. As I remember it, there are five races inhabiting this planet—the white, the yellow, the red, the black, and the brown. The red races, or should I say tribes, are those native to North and many parts of South America as well as some other places scattered over the world. The brown race is numerous in South America, Africa, Australia and India. The black race has its greatest representation in Africa, with some members in South America.

No Majority

Editor, Bulletin: The result in Grey North shows that no candidate got a majority of the votes.
That division of opinion among electors might indicate that in the case of a general election in Canada no party will have a complete working majority. The vote in the last election for the Ontario legislature would seem to confirm this view. Such a condition would result in a weak timid government.

As an academic and nonpolitical view, it would appear that the whole situation points to the advisability for a union government for Canada. In union there is strength—in division there is weakness. It is true that politicians say and do nasty things to each other.
This should not be allowed to stand in the way of a union government.

The apostle St. Paul at one time said and did nasty things to the Christians. St. Peter denied Christ three times; St. Thomas cast doubt on the crucifixion and resurrection but they formed a union with the Christians and did a good job.

Three Reasons Why There's No Cigarette Shortage in Canada

By I.N.S. IN THE OTTAWA JOURNAL

How is it that in the United States cigarettes are rarer than fine gold, while in Canada no dealer is ever right out of them, but has usually a selection of eight or 10 brands, or even 20?

There is not one answer to this question, but at least three. Before the answers, however, it is interesting to note that wartime cigarette consumption in Canada has not decreased, but is rapidly increasing.

In 1939 more than seven billion cigarettes were smoked in Canada (7,126,193,000). In 1944 the figure was 11,666,420,000. It was estimated that in 1939 the average Canadian adult (over 15) smoked 630 cigarettes a year. In 1944, making allowance for the absence of the troops overseas, the average Canadian adult smoked 1,017 cigarettes.
(Averages include non-smokers.)

Increased consumption has several causes. (1) More women smoke. (2) More men smoke. (3)
More people are smoking more. (4)
People are smoking more quickly.
Each of these causes is attributed to war nerves, though women were becoming great smokers even before the war.

The three reasons Canadians can get cigarettes while the American goes without are, though not necessarily in this order of importance: Higher taxation has kept demand within bounds, greater government control over the industry, and unwillingness of the Canadian to panic into hoarding.

The Wartime Prices Board controls the Canadian tobacco industry from the grower to the consumer. It regulates the price the grower gets for his leaf, the fee of the packer, the charges of the manufacturer and the wholesaler, and the price levied by the retailer.

Since 1939 the price of tobacco leaf per pound to the grower has increased more than 50 per cent, from 19's cents to 30 cents. But the government has permitted no increase in the price of cigarettes to the public. Take it easy now! I'm speaking in a Pickwickian sense.
Heavier taxes have been laid on cigarettes, to fill our war coffers, but the price of the actual cigarette has not gone up.

The Prices Board has persuaded tobacco companies to make savings in a number of ways. It has reduced the variety of packaging by one half. You used to be able to buy packages of 5, 8, 9, 10, 12, 18, 20, 22, 40 and 50 cigarettes. Today only the last five are available.

Costs have also been reduced by government suggestions to cut sales forces, abandon fancy premiums and stunt campaigns.

It is by taking up slack all along the line like this that the government has been able to increase the price to the grower of the leaf without boosting the price to the ultimate consumer.

Board officials, incidentally, pay high tribute to the enterprise and good management of Canadian tobacco companies. They wonder if the American tobacco companies have the same sense of national weal.

Canadian taxation on cigarettes ranges from $10 to $11 per thousand, against $3.50 in the United States.
Every time you smoke a cigarette you give the government slightly more than a cent. When you pay 33 cents for a package of 20 cigarettes about 21 cents go to fight a war.
Apart from the effect upon the cost of living index this is an important reason why the government is interested in keeping the actual cost of cigarettes at a minimum. It wants your pennies for taxes but knows there is a point beyond which even you will not go. Besides, streamlining package and sales and distribution forces also eases the demand on the labor market.

It is almost too obvious to say at this point that this tax-inflated price of cigarettes is a great restraining force on the demand and a major reason why there are cigarettes enough to go around. If the United States were suddenly to add 20 cents to the price of 20 cigarettes their shortage problem would very likely disappear. They did raise their tax a while ago it is true—from $3.25 per thousand to $3.50.

Government officials speak with pride when they tell you the third reason for Canada's hold on the cigarette market.

"Canadian smokers have played the game," they say. It seems that Canadians have refused to be stamped into panic buying. We anticipated having a better psychology for shortages than they have in the United States.

Following some shifts in population there were unanticipated heavy demands on cigarette stocks in some United States districts.
The supply ran out. Reports of shortages sped through the country and hoarders rushed to the counters. Twice the necessary stocks are needed to meet such demands. It's like a run on a bank.
And the run is still on in the United States.

Granted, our situation hasn't been as bad as theirs. But even so, a Canadian official insists that Canadian poise and coolness has been his greatest aid. Canadians have not grumbled too much about not being able to get their favorite brand. "After all, if we can offer them a choice of five or six brands it's not such a bad war."

Those are the three reasons—but there are some tag-end bits of information to complete the picture.

Canada grows enough tobacco
now to supply all her demands.
This is a development of recent years, thanks to a high protective tariff to the Canadian growers and to research by the Agricultural Department in producing a better strain of tobacco.

You hear people saying new and inferior brands are coming on the market. No new brand has come on the market since the industry was frozen by the Prices Board in 1941. No brand has been eliminated since then either. One sees more of the lesser known brands now because the more popular brands are quickly snapped up from the counters. Or perhaps your dealer has now to buy the lesser known brands because his favorites are scarce in the wholesalers.

It is true that the glycerine that used to keep your cigarettes moist is now being used to fight a war.
This makes the cigarette dry and tends to let it shake loose if you carry your packet long in the pocket. (However, nowadays the time lapse between manufacture and consumer is mighty short and this handicap isn't what it might be.) Apple syrup was tried as a substitute for glycerine and improved packing methods were devised to make up for the lack of tinfoil. But no one suggests these makehifts are fully successful. Tobacco men and government officials merely suggest that in this sixth year of war the Canadian smoker is better off by far than the smoker of any other warring country. It seems a fair comment.

The medical officer felt that he was not getting straight answers from the recruit, who seemed not to know what illnesses he had had in the past.

"Well, tell me the heaviest you have ever weighed," the MO suggested.

"Twelve stone," the recruit answered.

"The MO made a note.

"And the lightest?" snapped the MO.

"Seven pounds, sir," replied the recruit, without blinking an eyelid.

London Poles Won't Accept "Big 3" Plan

LONDON, Feb. 14.—(AP)—The Polish government in London, bitterly denouncing the big three, announced last night that it was refusing to accept the decisions regarding Poland made at the Crimean Conference and accused President Roosevelt, Prime Minister Churchill and Marshal Stalin of violating the Atlantic Charter.

A statement from Premier Tomasz Arciszewski of the London government said the big power intention to create a provisional government of national unity for Poland "can only legalize Soviet interference in Polish internal affairs."

NO FREE EXPRESSION

"As long as the territory of Poland will remain under the sole occupation of Soviet troops, a government of that kind will not safeguard the Polish nation, even in the presence of British and American diplomats, the unfettered right of free expression," the statement declared.

The London Poles said their government would regard severance of the eastern half of Poland through imposition of the Polish-Soviet frontier along the Curzon line as "a fifth partition of Poland," now accomplished by the Allies.

The Curzon line was proposed by an Allied commission as a frontier between Russia and Poland after the Soviet-Polish war of 1939. It took its name from Viscount Curzon, British foreign secretary, who headed the commission which attempted to mediate the boundary dispute. The line roughly followed the ethnical border between Ukrainians and Poles. Poland rejected it and retained Ukrainian territory with 6,000,000 Ukrainian inhabitants.

WEST OF 1939 BORDER

"The Curzon line at its centre is more than 150 miles west of Poland's pre-1939 frontier."

"The line extended from Lithuania direct west of Grodno southward in almost a straight line through Brest Litovsk and then angles west of Lvov to the Czechoslovak border."

Diplomatic quarters here regarded the Polish statement as killing the last hope of a chance of any of the members of the present London government participating in the new regime proposed by the "Big Three."

The Polish action, in effect relegated the London government to the status of a political society with the certainty that it would not long continue to have the recognition of the major powers.

The possibility grew that peasant-born Stanislaw Mikolajczyk, the former premier, might fly to Moscow shortly for discussions with the Allied commission authorized by the "Big Three" to form a new Polish provisional government of national unity.

Mikolajczyk is considered one of the most likely choices for premier in the new provisional government. After his resignation from the London government the Lublin Poles offered him the premiership of their regime.

2 RCMP Officials Enter Retirement

OTTAWA, Feb. 14.—(CP)—Royal Canadian Mounted Police headquarters announced last night the retirement of Assistant Commissioner P. R. Forde and Inspector Edward Carroll, both of whom now are stationed in Ottawa.

Both are on leave pending retirement Thursday.

Assistant Commissioner Forde, in charge of "S" department at headquarters, has seen service in the Yukon, the prairies and eastern Canada. For a number of years he was paymaster at Winnipeg and Regina and also quartermaster of the "depot" division, Regina. In the Yukon he served as magistrate and coroner.

In 1931 he was transferred from the Yukon to Vancouver and later moved east to Regina. He came to headquarters in 1934.

Inspector Carroll served for a number of years in Halifax, and received his commission while stationed in that city. He has been stationed in Ottawa since 1931, chiefly in "A" division.

Labor Code Unit For Professionals

OTTAWA, Feb. 14.—(CP)—Labor Minister Mitchell announced last night that professional workers will be placed under a special section of the federal labor code for a period of at least six months after which their position will be reviewed by the national labor relations board.

Various groups of professional workers, including engineers, architects and chemists, recently appealed to the board to be excluded from the collective bargaining terms of the code. They maintained that if a union obtained the right to represent workers in a plant it should not speak for the professional workers. Labor organizations opposed this view.

The clause under which the professional groups are placed provides for dealing with employees of a particular craft separately and not grouping them with the other employees in union representation. Under this plan, the professional workers in a plant may choose their own representation.

Annual dinner meeting of the board Wednesday. He was re-elected for a second term in the recent balloting. R. A. Thrall is first vice-president, A. Meston is second vice-president, and N. Botterill is honorary secretary.

Canadians "Break Ice"

HAMILTON, Bermuda, Feb. 14.—(CP)—A Canadian-born couple, breaking the ice of Bermuda's new marriage legislation, were married yesterday in the first civil wedding in this colony's history.

The precedent was set by Lt. John O. Keeling, RCNVR, of Norwood, Man., stationed here, and Mrs. Patricia Whalen King of Vancouver and St. Georges, Bermuda. They were married in the ancient Supreme Court building, its steps sprinkled with rice for the first time.

Throughout Bermuda's history, there has been no provision for civil marriages until authorization was passed by the legislature several months ago. Since the adoption of the new law, islanders have been slow to take advantage of its provisions.

See Vital Decision By Appeal Court

CALGARY, Feb. 14.—(CP)—The Alberta Appeal Court yesterday was told in Calgary it had the great responsibility of making a decision of vital concern to 47 nations of the world, signatories of the Geneva convention, and there would be international consequences to the verdict.

The court is considering the appeal of two German prisoners of war from conviction on a charge of having stolen a car owned by the Western Irrigation district while employed as farm helpers in the Strathmore district. Argument was continuing yesterday afternoon.

J. S. Mavor, K.C., acting for the Swiss government, said it had fallen to the high court of "this Alberta hinterland" to decide whether or not prisoners of war could be convicted for offences against the civil laws of the detaining power when such offences were committed in furtherance of the escape of the prisoners.

The counsel went so far as to contend that prisoners of war could not even be convicted of murder if they killed their guards while attempting to escape.

Presents Bouquet

MOSCOW, Feb. 14.—(AP)—Edward R. Stettinius, United States secretary of State, turned up at the Moscow ballet last night with a 3,000 ruble bouquet for his blonde star and received an ovation from the packed house. At the diplomatic exchange rate 3,000 rubles would be approximately $566.

Arbitral Tribunal Appointment Soon By Dominion Govt.

REGINA, Feb. 14.—(CP)—Premier T. C. Douglas said Tuesday he had been informed that the Dominion government is preparing to make its appointment to an arbitral tribunal to determine whether the Dominion has violated the Dominion-provincial taxation agreement by withholding a $582,331 payment due Saskatchewan Jan. 31.

It is expected the tribunal will sit in Ottawa and the Saskatchewan government will be represented by counsel at the sittings.

Prof. Frank Scott of Montreal, CCF national chairman, has been named to the tribunal by Saskatchewan.

The payment was withheld by the Dominion in part payment of a $16,468,852 seed grain debt.

Still "Not Guilty"

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 14.—(AP)—Francis Van Wie, 38-year-old street car conductor who has been wed no less than 12 times, entered a double plea of innocent yesterday to three charges of bigamy. He first pleaded not guilty, and then not guilty by reason of insanity. Trial was set for March 5.

New Committee

OTTAWA, Feb. 14.—(CP)—Labor Minister Mitchell yesterday announced the formation of a committee to effect closer co-ordination between the post-war training of veterans and their placement in employment. L. E. Westman, an associate director of National Selective Service, has been appointed chairman of the committee.

McCoy Health Service

In today's article I am going to tell you about gastric hyperacidity, which refers to the throwing out of too much hydrochloric acid by the stomach.

The patient who is manufacturing this strong acid in too large a quantity will experience various symptoms which make him all too well aware that he has a stomach. He is troubled by a burning sensation in the stomach, or by a gnawing feeling, or by heart-burn, or a feeling of being hungry, or by the belching of a sour-tasting fluid. He usually finds out for himself that the taking of food or the drinking of a liquid will provide him with temporary relief.

In patients having a tendency to gastric hyperacidity, any emotional strain or mental tension will make the symptoms markedly worse. This explains why the adoption of a quiet, soothing regimen will so often appear to bring considerable improvement.

Hyper-acidity of the stomach is one of the very few disorders in which the appetite is good—in fact, it is usually heightened in such a way as to make the patient believe he is hungry even a short time after eating, although, of course, this false appetite is not due to a real hunger.

The symptoms are most likely to appear when the stomach is empty at which time the excess of acid is irritating the stomach walls. If the patient misses a meal, the resultant gnawing feeling will cause considerable discomfort and it is sometimes difficult to make the patient understand that his distress is due to stomach irritation rather than to any real need for food, arising from true hunger.

All questions regarding health and diet will be answered. Large stamped, self-addressed envelope must be enclosed. Write on one side of paper only. Letters must not exceed 150 words. Address: McCoy Health Service, McCoy Building, 1151 West 6th Street, Los Angeles, Calif.

Nazi Orators Bitterly Lash Yalta Charter

By RICHARD KASISGHKE

LONDON, Feb. 14.—(AP)—Nazi leaders yesterday summoned the German nation, already torn and bleeding from multiple invasions, to "resist to the last breath Yalta's magna carta for the pauperization and misery of Europe."

Ignoring that part of the "Big Three" declaration which pledged "not to destroy the German people" and which promised hope of "a decent life" after the destruction of Nazism, Propaganda Minister Goebbels' orators sought to persuade all the people they were in the same boat with the Nazis.

CAUGHT OFF BALANCE

After weeks of stiffening the Germans against an anticipated "surrender now" call, the propagandists may have been caught off balance by the Crimean conference results. They denounced "Bolshevik terror and Jewish revenge" whose terms will be made public only after we have laid down our arms.

"We will never lay down our arms," shouted a commentator of DNR agency, "and this document will help us keep up our fighting morale because it shows that the individual German could never be worse off than if we capitulate now."

The general theme of German radio and press comment on the Crimean meeting was that the United Nations intended to exterminate all Germans and to make the Soviet Union the chief agent of what was termed "the greatest political murder conspiracy of all time."

STALIN "A MONSTER"

Marshal Stalin was painted as a monster whose intention was "the dismemberment and extermination of Germany and the domination of Europe." Thus, the Nazis harped on one of their oldest strains, the "Red menace."

They stressed the Yalta declaration provision and the Allied commission to fix war damage would have its seat at Moscow.

"Moscow will thereby become a great slave centre where the fate of millions of Germans will be decided," declared DNR.

A spokesman of the German foreign office was quoted as claiming that Stalin had imposed his will on President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Churchill in the Polish and Yugoslav questions and saying, "This is an unlimited triumph for Stalin in all spheres because a decisive influence on European affairs has been conceded to him."

Success Is Seen For Labor Parley

LONDON, Feb. 14.—(Reuters)—Barring some unpredictable, last-minute hitch, success of the world trade union conference appeared assured last night, following Sir Walter Citrine's proposals to set up a permanent committee with wide powers to prepare a new world trade union federation.

Speaker after speaker expressed his agreement with "any proposal that affords a reasonable chance of achieving unity."

Pat Conroy of the Canadian Congress of Labor (CCLO) asked that no slighting references be made to the rival American Federation of Labor, unrepresented at the conference, because men at the conference from the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, an AFL affiliate, told him it was prepared to co-operate along the lines of the Citrine proposal.

Mr. Conroy said he hoped that agreement on international unity might help to bring about trade union unity in Canada.

Meanwhile Jan Stanczyk of the Polish trade union center in London issued a statement to the press denying a report that the Poles were opposed to an international including Russian representatives.

PRIVATE BUCK—"Just a few more minutes, Eva—I'm at officers' mess!"

The Bulletin's SPORT SHOW by Hal Dean

SPORTS EDITOR

ALTHOUGH the Manahan rink's record during the recent bonspiel, along with Consols playdowns this week, hasn't approached the 25 straight rung up prior to hitting the Alberta final a year ago, Cliff is right in there again and now has a chance to cop his sixth provincial title in nine years and his seventh in 13.

The Royal skipper won his first Alberta championship in 1933 and went on to take Dominion honors, repeating in '37. He also was in the Brier final in '38, but finished second to Al Gowatlock of Winnipeg with eight wins and one loss. Cliff went in search of Dominion honors again in '40, losing for third with the New Brunswick entry.

This is the third successive year without Brier competition, but Manahan has won the Alberta British Consols final each time. Billy Rose of Sedgewick, northern finalist again this season, won the northern Consols in '39 and '41 and John Slavik of Viking went as far as the Dominion final in '42.

And just for the record—Manahan won two bonspiel games on Saturday, three on Sunday, three in the Consols playdowns on Monday and a pair in the final yesterday to make 10 straight in four days. Wes Robinson and Lloyd McIntyre were with Cliff as far back as '37. Bill Bull is tossing lead rocks.

KWONG WITH COLONELS

THOSE fans who journeyed out to see the Edmonton RCAF Flyers play Wetaskiwin Army Consols at the arena last night, saw Western Canada's No. 1 Chinese puckster in action.

Larry Kwong, formerly of Vernon, then with Trail, later with Nanaimo, played the latter part of last season with Red Deer Army Wheelers. In addition to being a tricky stickhandler and possessing a fair turn of speed, Larry has an evasive shift going on a defence and he gets a shot away fast. He was the best man on the ice.

Tackle Seniors On Friday

Canadians Agree to Play Additional Games at Coast

VANCOUVER, Feb. 14.—(CP)—Frank Dutton of New Westminster, B.C., promoter of the exhibition hockey series between Edmonton Canadians and the all-star team from the Pacific Coast Junior Hockey League, said last night the Alberta squad has agreed to play two additional games here before returning home.

They will meet the all-stars in a third game at New Westminster Thursday night and then will clash with the Seattle Ironmen, leaders of the northern division of the Pacific Coast League in a wind-up game at Vancouver Friday night.

Second game of their series with the all-stars will be played in Vancouver tonight.

Members of the Ironmen are mostly New Westminster residents. Dutton is coach and manager of the squad. He currently is leading the individual scoring parade in the northern division of the Pacific Coast League.

Meanwhile it was announced that a sell-out crowd of 6,000 would be on hand for tonight's feature here.

While there was no prediction forthcoming from either manager Ken Henry or coach Clarence Moher of the Edmonton team, both said last night they were pleased with the performance of their club last night and "will be out there to win again tomorrow."

"We have had some tough games," Moher said. "But last night was really tough. It's not easy for our club to come from behind. It's a new experience. We're usually out in front going in."

The Canadians won the game 4-3 after coming from behind a 3-0 first period deficit.

Asked about his chances against the senior Seattle Ironmen, Henry said: "We like tough competition and that's why we are glad to play them."

Both team officials admitted, however, that the Edmonton goalgetter found goals. Al Boringe of the all-star team "had more to beat" Boringe in from Moose Jaw, Sask. He is the regular goaltender for New Westminster. Also in the Pacific Coast Junior League as well as for the Seattle Ironmen.

Neither team reported any serious injuries from Monday night's contest.

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—(AP)—New York Yankees Tuesday announced a 15-game exhibition schedule opening March 20 with Boston Red Sox at Atlantic City and closing with a three-game series against the Brooklyn Dodgers at Ebbets Field, April 15-17.

Fairbanks Club Downs Division By Score 49-37

The Squadron E Invaders from Ladd Field, Alaska displayed just why they boast an unbeaten string of close to two dozen victories Tuesday night when they whipped the local US Alaskan Division Headquarters club 49-37 in a basketball clash at the NMAC drill hall before a crowd of around 700.

Manuel Hanscher, former Marquette University star and Rob Lewis, who played with the New York University cagers, carried out some neat combination plays to pace the Fairbanks team to its 23rd straight victory. Hanscher topped the scoring list with 15 points while Lewis had only one field basket less for 13 points.

Wayne Warner, who checked Manuel Dorsky very effectively, came in with 11 for the visitors while Bill Keller with seven, Louis Rednare with two and John D'Autolo with one point, collected the remaining counters for the winners.

Rex Williams hit his regular stride for the locals and dropped in 14 points to top the Division snipers.

The Headquarters team played effectively in the first half and were only trailing by one point, 20-19 at the half-way mark. Manuel Dorsky and Willis Farnham, two Division regulars who have been out with injuries recently, slowed up and the losers were unable to hold the visiting sextet.

The Fairbanks cagers, American Army champions of the Alaskan Division left this morning for Winnipeg where they will play for the championship of US teams in Canada. They will probably make another appearance here on their way back to Alaska.

Prince Albert Takes First Of Playoffs 10-4

SASKATOON, Feb. 14.—(CP)—Prince Albert Black Hawks chalked up an easy 10-4 victory over University of Saskatchewan Huskies in the first game of their best-of-three Northern Saskatchewan Junior Hockey League semi-finals here last night.

Second game will be played at Prince Albert Saturday night and if another game is necessary to decide the series, it will also be played at Prince Albert.

Winners will meet the survivors of the Saskatoon Navy vs. Saskatchewan championship.

Jack Hayes, with three goals, Bob Solinger and Arnold Casey, with a pair each and Don Johnston, Bob Locke and Dick Burgess scored for Hawks.

Pete Smadych, with two, Lance Ward and Gerry Couture were the goal-getters for Huskies.

Horsemen Are Not "Derby Conscious"

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Feb. 14.—(AP)—Ordinarily about this time of year, horsemen would have become "derby conscious," but now a date usually important in preparations for the "Run for the Roses" is about to pass unheeded if not unnoticed.

It is Feb. 15—the usual deadline for derby nominations. And although that usual closing date is only one day away, the Churchill Downs management here is still marking time, awaiting word from Washington that the ban on racing has been lifted.

It was learned at the Downs Monday that no nomination blanks have been printed and that no deadline for nominations would be set until action by government of breaks warranted.

The derby was scheduled for Saturday, May 3.

Bennett Close To Shutout

Bruins Shade Chicago 3-2 To Tighten 4th Place Grip

BOSTON, Feb. 14.—(AP)—A three-goal scoring burst in the second period gave the Boston Bruins a 3-2 victory over the Chicago Black Hawks and strengthened their grip on the National Hockey League's fourth and last playoff berth Tuesday night before 7,500 fans at the Boston Garden.

Harvey Bennett, in the Boston cage for the ailing Paul Bibeault, kept the visitors scoreless for almost 50 minutes.

Because of their close-checking tactics, the Black Hawks had only 15 shots at the Bruins' substitute goalie during the entire game and two of them, fired by Butch McDonald and Cully Dahlstrom, turned on the light within the short space of 39 seconds midway through the final.

The Bruins scored after driving their first and only penalty during the 10th minute of the second period. With Gino Rozzini off for interfering, the Black Hawks launched their first determined drive and Herb Cain poked-checked the puck away from defenseman Joe Cooper in centre-ice and made a successful breakaway against the defenseless M. Karakas.

Within the next six minutes, Bill Cowley edged Don Clapper's rebound and Armand Gaudreault gave the Bruins a 3-0 lead by polishing off a three-man rush with Rozzini and Jack Shewchuk.

Pete Horeck set up both of Chicago's speedy goals. The first dropped a puck inside of the Boston defence for McDonald, who ruined Bennett's shutout hopes by faking him perfectly. Then Horeck bounced the rubber off Bennett's pads and Dahlstrom made good on the rebound.

Next Game Thursday

Edmonton Athletic Club took a four goal lead in the two-game total-goal City Juvenile Hockey League semi-finals Tuesday night by shutting out Maple Leafs 4-0 at the 119 Street Rink. Next game will be played Thursday and the winners will meet Canadians (B) for the league championship.

Jack Meldrum and Clem Kerr showed the way for the winners with a goal and an assist each while Harry Jeske and Gordon Grierson drove home the other two tallies. Goalie Stevenson also turned in a neat game between the pipes to register the shutout.

Jeske took a nice pass from Meldrum in the first period to give the EAC squad the lead, beating Dennis McManus, who was in the Leafs' nets after a long period on the sidelines due to an injury and then Meldrum completed a play with defenceman Kerr in the second to make it 2-0.

The Clubmen didn't let up in the third, however, and continued their drive to cinch the game and earn a nice lead in the series by adding two more. Grierson hit the line after taking a relay from Norm Grant and then Kerr blazed one past McManus to end the counting.

GALT, Ont., Feb. 14.—(CP)—Galt Red Wings took over undisputed possession of third place in the Junior OHA race by edging St. Catharines Falcons 5-4 in overtime here Tuesday night.

Takes Title Sixth Time In 9 Years

DEFEATING W. W. (Bill) Rose of Sedgewick in two straight games, Cliff Manahan of the Royal won the Northern Alberta British Consols championship for the sixth time in the last nine years Tuesday afternoon when he took the best of three final at the Royal Curling rink.

After grabbing the first match 7-5 yesterday morning, the Manahan crew continued its steady curling and won 10-6 in the afternoon game. Manahan now journeys to Calgary on a trip he hopes will bring him another Alberta Consols title. He will meet Hube Goeder of Olds, southern winner.

Yesterday's games were two of the best curled since the start of the bonspiel and both matches were close all the way through. Manahan won the second game and the title with his first rock on the last end. Rose was lying four on the 12th after the thirds had both heaved their two stones, but Manahan broke it up with his first shot to end Rose's chances.

The out-come was uncertain until the 12th. Rose counted one on the first and then Manahan came back with a pair of twos on the second and third. Rose added one on the fourth and then tied it up on the fifth with a two. Manahan took the next end and after that remained ahead. He scored a two on the seventh, making it 7-4. Rose took the eighth with a one, Manahan added a single on the ninth and two more on the 10th. Rose took the 11th to stay in the running and then Manahan finished things up in the last.

The first game was even closer and neither skip counted more than one on a single end until Manahan was lying two after the shooting was over on the 10th.

The score was tied up 2-2 going into the fifth, but Manahan counted two ends in a row to go ahead where he remained.

The veteran Royal curling expert has Wes Robinson, Lloyd McIntyre and Bill Bull on his rink while the other three throwing the rocks on the Sedgewick quartet were A. P. Smith, B. Swelin and George Crooks.

Score by ends of the best of three final:

First Game
Manahan 101 611 616 20—7
Rose 101 100 101 01—5
Second Game
Rose 100 126 616 01—6
Manahan 022 001 201 20—10

ment by the quarterback on getting plays started. It was claimed that at present too many smart lateral plays are spoiled because of slight illegal forward passes. The recommendation provides that only one such forward would be allowed off the original play.

Finally, the QRFU will suggest that 10-yard interference be allowed linemen only, an idea that has been mooted in the past and which reports here say the CRU is ready to adopt. Five yard interference is allowed at present.

Manahan Rink Again Wins North Consols

Takes Title Sixth Time In 9 Years

RCAF Flyers Win 9-1 Over Wetaskiwin Army

EDMONTON RCAF Flyers moved up into a first-place tie with Red Deer Army Wheelers as the result of the 9-1 pasting given Wetaskiwin Army Consols in Tuesday night's Northern Alberta Services Hockey League game at the Arena.

Mike MacCloskey, "Chuck" Normandin and Herman Wagner all scored twice, the other RCAF goals going to Tommy Tucker, Tony Koslock and Arvie Wilson. Larry Kwong, smart Chinese centre ice players secured the Colonels' lone counter.

Although no official statement has been forthcoming, it is understood that this will be the last league game for Flyers here. Red Deer Wheelers, however, will be at Wetaskiwin for Thursday night's scheduled affair, presumably the final one for the circuit.

WILSON SCORES FIRST

Arvie Wilson marked up the only goal of the opening period. The RCAF defenceman took the puck from Gale as the Army player swung over the blue line and went through five minutes after the start of the game.

In the next few minutes Wetaskiwin had six shots on Turgeon, three of them by Kwong, but they never got near the Flyer goal in the last half of the session.

Ryan of the RCAF received a match misconduct penalty for swinging at Red Deer Jimmy Anderson at the 12-minute mark. He was given a penalty for boarding Hebbis and a 10-minute misconduct followed when he refused to leave the ice. The match misconduct resulted from subsequent developments.

Gray missed a set-up chance to score for Army just before the end of the period. He never got his shot away, with the goal wide-open.

KOSLOCK MAKES IT 2-0

Koslock added another for Flyers early in the second session. Kwong went right through, circled the net and passed out in front of the net, but there was nobody to receive his pass.

With Wilson off for a cross-checking penalty Flyers scored again at 7:44. Wagner bested Stevenson on a breakaway with a low shot to the far side of the goal. Tommy Tucker had made the pass up to Wagner.

Tucker raised the count to 4-0 at 9:57. Goalie Stevenson, who again turned in a fine performance, stopped Howard Cutler's shot, but was out of position when Tucker obtained possession of the rubber.

Normandin secured the final marker of the period from a scramble in front of the Army goal at 14:24. Terry drew an assist.

KWONG FOR ARMY

Flyers took things easy in the final period until the last few minutes. Larry Kwong slapped in the Colonels' goal at 5:55 immediately following a faceoff to the left of the RCAF net.

Mike MacCloskey lifted the score to 6-1 at 15:42 on a rebound from Terry's shot and Wagner passed ahead to Mike who cut around the Army defence for another minute later. MacCloskey finished off the play by drawing out Stevenson.

Wagner counted Flyers' eighth goal at 19:44 on a breakaway with nobody back and MacCloskey slipped the rubber to Normandin seven seconds later to make the count 9-1.

Wetaskiwin Army—Stevenson, Ritchie, Taylor, Kwong, Spooner, Brault, Galt, Steinhilber, Hebbis, Gray, Arvie Wilson. RCAF—Turgeon, Bill Terry, Nikitovich, Tucker, Wagner, Cutler, Normandin, MacCloskey, Green, Koslock, Wilson.

Officials—W. Ronge, J. Anderson.

SUMMARY

First period: 1—RCAF, Wilson 5:57.

Second period: 2—RCAF, Koslock 9:57, 3—RCAF, Wagner (Tucker) 9:57, 4—RCAF, Tucker (Cutler) 9:57, 5—RCAF, Normandin (Terry) 14:24. Penalties—Wilson.

Third period: 6—Army, Kwong 5:55, 7—RCAF, MacCloskey (Wagner) 15:42, 8—RCAF, Wagner (14:44), 9—RCAF, Normandin (MacCloskey) 19:44. Penalties—Brault 2, Nikitovich (major), Terry, Wilson (major), Spooner.

Wainwright Cops Shooting Event

Wainwright walked off with the January honors of the five man team competition in the Veterans' Volunteer Reserve 22 rifle shoot by posting a score of 498 plus 28s to edge out the Jasper quintet, which registered a count of 498 plus 25s. Third in this event, which had seven teams competing, was Gads by with 495 plus 26s.

C. Co. South Edmonton Battalion took the 10 man team competition with a score of 993 plus 54s. Runner up was the "C" Co. North Edmonton Battalion team with 990 plus 50s and third was Red Deer with 985 plus 50s. Ten teams took part in this event.

In the individual shooting, 71 men scored a perfect 100 and 25 shot a score of 99.

It was a tough break for McSpaden, who lost the tournament last year to Sammy Byrd after setting the pace up to the last 18 holes. His second place was good for $933 in war bonds.

A gallery of approximately 2,000 followed the golfers over the soggy course under a hot sun.

EDMONTON RCAF Flyers moved up into a first-place tie with Red Deer Army Wheelers as the result of the 9-1 pasting given Wetaskiwin Army Consols in Tuesday night's Northern Alberta Services Hockey League game at the Arena.

Mike MacCloskey, "Chuck" Normandin and Herman Wagner all scored twice, the other RCAF goals going to Tommy Tucker, Tony Koslock and Arvie Wilson. Larry Kwong, smart Chinese centre ice players secured the Colonels' lone counter.

Although no official statement has been forthcoming, it is understood that this will be the last league game for Flyers here. Red Deer Wheelers, however, will be at Wetaskiwin for Thursday night's scheduled affair, presumably the final one for the circuit.

Today's Sport Parade

By Jack Cuddy

NEW YORK, Feb. 13.—(BUP)—Washington department heads, who singled out racing as an "ugly duckling" of sports seven weeks ago today, are beginning to regard the gallop-and-gamble divertimento as a sort of "white swan" because of the admirable manner in which the horse industry has reacted to the ban.

According to well-informed sources at the capital, this new regard for racing may bring about a re-opening of the nation's tracks in April, if war reports continue favorable.

Washington officials were pleasantly surprised at racing's calm intelligent acceptance of the shutdown which mobilization director James F. Byrnes "requested" on Dec. 23, we are informed. They expected turf leaders to give off loud "beefs", charging discrimination. They expected intense lobbying to have the ban removed, accompanied by pressure from congressmen and governors befriending the golden enterprise which handled $1,126,308,643 (B) in 17 states during 1944 and enriched those states and taxes.

But nothing like that happened. Instead, the racing industry—with its $200,000,000 investment and its 40,000 employees—quietly took stock of the situation and sent Harry A. Parr, 3rd, to Washington to inquire if there was any way in which racing could be additionally useful in helping to win the war. Young Parr, genial and genteel, is president of the Maryland Jockey Club and president of the thoroughbred racing association of the United States. He made a favorable impression in Washington, we learn, by offering all-out co-operation instead of asking favors.

Our capital sources emphasize that, despite many rumors of a turf lobby, there has actually been none.

Meanwhile, the turf men of the nation have quietly awaited developments, and only in a couple of isolated instances have persons connected with the sport popped off. Owners of strings have tried to keep their horses in condition by workouts, under supervision of men unacceptable for armed service.

In New York, for example, the stables at Belmont Park are well populated, and there is great activity there in the mornings. Chats with horsemen there disclose that similar situation prevails in many other racing centers, and that there will be plenty of thoroughbreds ready to run if and when the tracks are reopened. In this connection it is recalled that there were approximately 11,200 starters at the various tracks in 1944—starters that performed before 18,000,000 people.

Racing's admirable reaction to the ban may help them start again this year.

Ken Watson Rink Takes Aggregate Manitoba 'Spiel'

WINNIPEG, Feb. 14.—(CP)—A one-sided victory in the British Consols event last night virtually assured Ken Watson's Winnipeg Strathcona curlers their fourth successive grand aggregate honors in the annual Manitoba bonspiel. Watson, skip of Dominion championship rinks in 1936 and '42, whipped Dave Petch of Virden 14-3.

It was Watson's 13th victory against one loss in the seven-day old 'spiel and placed his rink one game ahead of Billy McLeod of the Winnipeg Grain Exchange Club.

McLeod, however, has only one more game in the major competitions while Watson remains in two competitions, the Birks-Dingwall and British Consols.

Spanish Diplomat Said Responsible For Loss of Lives

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—(AP)—Representative John M. Coffee (Dem., Wash.) declared in the house of representatives yesterday that Jose Del Castano, Spanish consul to Manila, "has on his hands the blood of thousands of Americans," and demanded that the state department declare the Spanish diplomat persona non grata. Rep. Coffee said that when the Japanese occupied Manila, each foreign consul was requested to prepare a list of Americans considered "most dangerous to the Axis."

"The only diplomat who consented," Coffee said, "was Jose Del Castano."

Outstanding Negro Will Box Tonight

CHICAGO, Feb. 14.—(CP)—A lanky Negro lad, who fought as a preliminary boy for only $50 three months ago, "will" share a possible $90,000 "gate" tonight to climax a fantastic buildup that recalls the days of Kingfish Levinsky.

The newest stick of dynamite is George Costner of Cincinnati, with a record of 23 consecutive knock-outs, who will engage Ray (Sugar) Robinson of New York, leading challenger for the world's lightweight championship, in a battle set for 10 rounds or less in the Chicago Stadium.

Bob Gracie Closer To Paul Courteau

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Feb. 14.—(AP)—Bob Gracie, clever Pittsburgh star, edged a bit closer to Paul Courteau, Providence ace, to add heat to the American Hockey League's individual scoring race during the past week.

The official figures released Monday by president Maurice Podoloff show that Gracie tallied four goals and three assists while Courteau set up five scoring plays. The Providence star leads with 71 points, five more than Gracie.

CARGO FOR AUSTRALIA—The Canadian Pacific Express Company sent a veritable menagerie rolling across Canada recently when the Toronto Parks zoo despatched a carload of birds, animals and reptiles to the Sydney zoo in Australia. The car contained, in specially constructed crates and cages, two alligators, two bears, three beavers, two deer, an opossum, two owls, two raccoons, six squirrels, four prairie marmots, three turtles, three vultures, a fox, two herons, two bitterns and two skunks that had been evidently de-odorized. On the trip from Toronto to Vancouver by Canadian Pacific lines the animals seemed to make themselves comfortable, especially the owls, deer and fox, shown above.

"TWIN SPECIAL"—Built entirely from packing cases, the "Twin Special" is a familiar sight in Toronto streets. Here the owner, Mrs. David Nelson, prepares her 11-month-old twins, Beverly Anne and John David, for a spin. Each cockpit has a mattress in it so that the twins may sleep when they wish. There is a luggage compartment also, at the rear, to hold the groceries.

CAPTURED ENEMY EQUIPMENT—Captured enemy clothing, weapons and equipment are carefully studied by Intelligence Officers of the Canadian and Allied armies. Don't let the picture on the left fool you. The lad seen here is NOT a Jap, but a Canadian soldier dressed in a quilted Japanese winter coat, with fur collar and cuffs, steel helmet and a Jap "Bren" gun, with bayonet attached. This equipment was captured in the Pacific theatre of operations. At the right, a Canadian Army Officer looks over a German sub-machine gun captured in North Africa. German and Japanese shells and land mines are seen in the background.

HOT DOGS FOR CANADIANS AT FRONT—A real honest-to-goodness hot-dog and hamburger stand has been opened on the Western front for Canadian troops. The stand is named "The Blue Diamond" and is located within the sound of battle in Holland. Studying the bill of fare is L-Bdr. Gerald Henning of Oshawa, Ont., while seen biting into a healthy hamburger, the first to be served at the stand is Cpl. John McIntosh of Galetta, Ont.

CCF Speakers Outline Party's Future Plans

"If the Canadian people can be divided in the coming election, if they can be made to forget that the government elected was mostly a post-war government, if we can be stirred by racial and religious talk, then we can expect to have been beaten back once more," Elmer E. Roper, M.L.A., Alberta CCF leader, told a large gathering at the IOOF hall Tuesday evening.

Mr. Roper was one of three speakers heard. He asserted that the three members from the armed services recently elected to the provincial house should be given seats at the coming session.

In the coming federal election, he continued, the records of other parties showed that to depend on them was like leaning on a slender reed.

"Social Credit admits having conversations with the Conservatives," he said, "the record of the Liberals is poverty and need."

"The depression began under Mackenzie King; it got worse under the Conservatives, and it kept getting worse under King again. We can expect the same sort of thing if we go back to them."

IMPROVE STANDARDS
"Private enterprise cannot and does not expect to provide full employment after the war. Then public enterprise must. The people of Canada must have a higher standard of living," he said.

Miss M. H. Crawford, second speaker of the evening, declared that people must be given assurance that there is work for them and said that one authority had made the statement that 1,500,000 more jobs have to be found in Canada than are available now.

There was no question about the physical capacity to do it; the human physique and the resources are here, and the CCF proposed to socialize the financial instruments, instead of allowing monopolies to restrict production as well as human beings.

"To keep up production in the post-war years will require national planning. People," she added, "people who say planning is bad, or sinful, must say it with their tongues locked in their cheeks."

"Planning is required so the things people need come first; planning must have some logic; planning is the people's business."

"Money is a commodity. It must be made a medium of exchange, where it belongs."

"Try for a day eating nickles and dimes; try clothing yourself in burlap; try sleeping with a gold brick for a pillow, and see how you feel," she said.

Chartered banks and insurance companies did the loaning of money or had the control of the country's financial assets, the speaker charged, declaring that banks now depend on the government for business.

RUN GOVERNMENT
"Banks are not going to invest in private industry anymore. They want safe government securities. The banks run the government."

Is it ridiculous, she asked, "for the government to sell bonds and pay interest to the chartered banks and create a debt?"

Ald. H. D. Aitken, third speaker of the evening, averred that if peacetime production goes down, even as much as $1,000,000, it would affect everyone in the country. Most current prosperity, he said, has come about because of labor getting a decent wage and a housewife getting a regular cheque.

Liberty in a country could mean anything, he continued. "It means that you are at liberty to make a million dollars at the expense of the common people. It means you are at liberty to stand in line at a soup-kitchen. In the United States, boys are told they can become president—but the percentage of boys getting there is small."

The CCF was not asking for work for work's sake, but a certain amount of work was good for one, Mr. Aitken continued, and said that the object of every worker was to provide for the needs of his family. Each worker should be looked on as an asset by every other worker in the country, he said.

The CCF party proposed to establish, among other things, a labor code, minimum wages, equality of treatment for men and women workers, vacations with pay, minimum industrial standards, nation-wide compulsory collective bargaining, human security and the outlawing of company unions, said the speaker.

He had a word for selective service officers. That organization, he said, has won wide condemnation from labor; it has been a buffer between the government and labor.

Mr. Aitken, who defied anyone to run the selective service department as it should be run.

Art Thornton acted as chairman of the meeting.

Criticism by Elmer E. Roper, provincial CCF leader, of the recent soldier vote conducted for Albertans serving overseas as "government bungling" were branded Wednesday by Premier Ernest Manning as being in "very poor taste."

Mr. Roper, at a CCF meeting Tuesday night, declared government "bungling" has characterized procedure of the service vote from beginning to end.

"This criticism of holding of the soldier vote comes with very poor taste from the only man who has attempted to drag politics into the soldier election," Mr. Manning stated in reply to the CCF leader's charges.

The premier would not comment further, indicating a statement will be issued soon covering the whole service election question.

Mr. Roper first criticized the soldier vote regulations last fall, at the time full details were announced.

3 City Families Facing Eviction
Three Edmonton families facing eviction on the first of March are registered at the Edmonton Accommodation Bureau, Mrs. M. E. Fielding, director, said Wednesday. The three families have received court orders to vacate their homes by the first of next month and have as yet been unable to find any other accommodation.

One couple and eight children are being forced from their home, which the owner wants to alter, and are faced with the problem of finding a house at a moderate rental.

Mrs. Fielding said she has no houses or suites listed at the bureau for rent at the present time, but that there is plenty of "shared accommodation" or bedrooms available.

Another couple searching desperately for a suite or small house have two children and the third family is made up of an elderly couple.

More School Space Needed Trustees Told

Owing to the crowded condition of Eastwood, Parkdale and H. A. Gray schools, a new school located about half way between Eastwood and H. A. Gray will be required in the near future, R. S. Sheppard, superintendent of schools, told a meeting of the Edmonton Public School Board Tuesday night.

Increased enrollment at H. A. Gray during the past two years will make necessary the opening of one or possibly two extra rooms when school opens in the fall, the superintendent reported.

In his report covering methods of providing the extra accommodation Mr. Sheppard pointed out that consideration might be given to the advisability of erecting, at an early date, a new elementary school on a site reserved at 90 street and 121 avenue.

"If this were agreed upon," he said, "it would relieve the congestion at the three schools and the distance many pupils have to travel would be considerably reduced."

The report was referred to the property committee for consideration.

Other alternatives which the superintendent suggested included additions to the school itself, the erection of portable buildings, basement classrooms, or to partition off the assembly hall.

When H. A. Gray was built, it was so planned that six additional rooms would be added when needed. There are sixteen rooms at present. The central part is three stories high, and each end is two stories. Three additional rooms could be provided by adding one storey at either the north or south end of the school.

He pointed out that the modern trend is to keep school buildings to two storeys, and added all washroom and lavatory facilities are in the basement.

H. C. Clark, a teacher representative, pointed out that there is a definite need for a special high school building in the district and said that if one were built it would leave Eastwood free for elementary pupils.

STUDENT INCREASE
Mr. Sheppard reported that the number of pupils enrolled in Edmonton Public Schools in January this year showed an increase of 592 over the same month last year.

Members of the board agreed to the purchase of a DeVilbiss spray painting machine to be used in decorating the interior of the schools.

The board approved the recommendation of the property committee to supply the material for 50 wooden lockers for Westmont Intermediate school with the provision that the Mountie Home and School Association provide the labor. The lockers will contain four sections each, approximately 16 inches square.

G. M. Cornie was appointed associate director to the Edmonton Exhibition Board.

During January Edmonton school children sold War Savings Stamps totalling $4,267.25, compared with $3,996 in the same month last year.

All Lies!
EUGENE, Ore., Feb. 14.—(AP)—Auburn-haired Vilma Suberly, 26, denied yesterday marrying six service men—plus a few civilians—to collect some $4,500 in service allotment cheques.

Sitting in a jail cell here, she described as "all lies" charges by the Federal Bureau of Investigation that she married—without benefit of divorce—six servicemen and two or three civilians.

The Allies, he said, are up against a revolutionary movement made more dangerous by its very ideals. "Nazism is a philosophy, a religion," Mr. Lie said. "And unless we realize this fact, Nazism will live on for years to come. We must take the necessary steps to prevent this. The world will not be safe before these ideas are uprooted, before people everywhere look upon each other as equals, as brothers."

Mr. Lie recalled visiting Germany and seeing tens of thousands of German youngsters parading the streets in uniform, he stated that when he saw this, he wrote in his diary "they are marching toward war."

Canucks Past 2nd Siegfried Defence Belt

PARIS, Feb. 14.—(CP)—Gen. Crerar's Canadian and British forces were well through the second belt of the Siegfried line last night, according to front-line dispatches. These said that the next line of defenses available to the Germans is the Hochwald line, the third and final Siegfried belt about 10 miles beyond the present Allied forward positions.

This was the position of Gen. Crerar's front last night: Canadian troops after capturing Griethausen, three miles west of the German town of Emmerich, were operating east of the railway through Griethausen to Kieve and Goch.

British infantrymen and armor were probing northeast toward the Rhine and Emmerich, which stands on the east bank of the river.

Other British units were edging east and southeast along the Kieve-Uden and Kieve-Goch highways. Mopping up was going on in the eastern sector of the Reichswald, where all the ground lost in Monday's two German counter-attacks was regained.

Contribution headquarters will be located in the premises of the Sterling Shoe store.

Among those in attendance at the meeting were L. Y. Cairns, K.C. publicity chairman; Elmer E. Roper, M.L.A. chairman of the Edmonton Red Cross Association; Robert Muir, secretary manager of the Edmonton Red Cross; J. H. King, chairman of the rural division; E. McGarvey, chairman of the general canvass; Russell Bradley, chairman of the industrial section; William Wilson, head of the radio committee; Con Johnson, representing the Greek relief organization here; and John Dower, Leonard Herscovici and W. A. MacDonald.

LONDON THINKS SOVIET UNION TO FIGHT JAPS
LONDON, Feb. 14.—(Reuters)—It is believed in London that the Soviet Union will join in the war against Japan and that the Soviet delegation will make this declaration at the San Francisco conference, called by the Big Three. It is also underlined that the final stages of the war in Europe will follow speedily on the present phase in which the Allies are manoeuvring for the decisive battle planned at Yalta by the Big Three.

Straws in Wind!
PARIS, Feb. 14.—(AP)—France appears to be heading toward post-war puritan-like sobriety. Straws in the wind are the government's anti-alcohol campaign, closing of Paris night clubs, suppression of legalized prostitution in the department of Savoie, an isolated but perhaps significant action—and the overhauling of juvenile delinquency courts.

WINNIPEG, Feb. 14.—(CP)—Sgt. J. D. Douglas of Toronto was killed late Monday when an RCAP training plane crashed near Unity, Sask. No. 2 Training Command, RCAP, announced here yesterday. A second airman, a student pilot, killed in the crash was from Ottawa.

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—(AP)—For the first time since 1911, a Scottish terrier, Shieling's Signaure, won the coveted best in show award at the Westminster Kennel Club exhibition, completed at Madison Square Garden late last night after two days of competition embracing 2,653 dogs and 102 breeds.

School Dances Real Problem, Say Trustees

A request by the West-Edmonton-Teen club for the use of the Westlawn school gymnasium for its weekly activities was considered by a special meeting of members of the property committee, Edmonton Public School Board, Tuesday night to be a "serious problem" with far reaching implications, and was referred to a full meeting of the seven member committee.

A. E. Ottewill, chairman, said that to grant the request would mean to change the whole school policy regarding the holding of social functions in the schools.

He said the policy was laid down in a full dress debate a number of years ago, but added that it may be time for a change.

Present regulations allow each high school to hold two recognized social functions during the year and in addition community leagues were granted the right to hold dances in the schools but the board still withheld sanctioning social dances in the school buildings.

SUPERVISION PROBLEM
The affairs sponsored by the West-Edmonton-Teen organization would virtually amount to public dances, the chairman said, and the problem of supervision would be great. "If it is a school function the responsibility is fixed," he said.

Mr. Ottewill circulated a paper bearing one of the reasons which was "worrying" him in regard to granting the club's request, but said he did not want to make a public statement.

"If the board sanctions the holding of these dances it becomes their responsibility," Mr. Ottewill said, "if not the youngsters will dance somewhere else but it won't be our responsibility."

It was pointed out that if the club was allowed to use the gymnasium and wash rooms the whole school would be open to those attending and careful supervision would have to be maintained.

The request for the use of the gymnasium was made by a delegation from the club through the board of management of the Mount Glen Community YMCA.

At present the Friday night activities of the teenage group are held in Westmount Community hall which members maintain is not large enough to accommodate the several hundred who attend.

LEADERSHIP LOST
The delegation pointed out that facilities offered by the Central Y and South Side branches are so much more superior from the point of view of size and ventilation that the other high school youths prefer to attend functions at those centres rather than in their own district depriving the Westlawn district of needed leadership.

The delegates reported that an overwhelming majority of the parents in the community are willing to support the club and that all teachers interviewed were in favor of the movement.

The club asked the board to make available the gymnasium and wash rooms of the school on Fridays from 7:30 to 11:30 p.m. and pointed out that it would be an advantage to designate one room as a smoking room.

Present school regulations prohibit smoking in the buildings.
